Judge Has Plan To Reduce Crime

By FRANK LaPIERRE

Municipal Judge Roy W. Seagraves has outlined a pilot program aimed at reducing crimes committed by juveniles by teaching law to elementary grade students in local schools.

The research project outlined by Judge Seagraves at a meeting of the San Mateo County Council of Mayors in Brisbane Friday, will cost some $245,000 and will be undertaken in Redwood City starting in October.

Purpose of the program — considered a pilot project for the entire nation — is threefold and will measure (1) the effectiveness of teaching law and respect for law enforcement in reducing juvenile delinquency; (2) the effect of teaching law and respect for law enforcement on juvenile attitudes, and; (3) the best curriculum for teaching law and respect for law enforcement.

The results and statistical projections from these measurements will be interpreted to determine the feasibility of a kindergarten through eighth grade curriculum to build lawful behavior in children and reduce juvenile delinquency, Seagraves explained.

"What we hope to do is develop justification for a nationwide program through this pilot project," Judge Seagraves said.

Biggest problem facing the program is: Where will the money come from?

"I am hoping to get the necessary funds from the Federal Government. If they turn me down, I'll appeal over nationwide television and ask for aid," Seagrave said.

Judge Seagraves is convinced his project will substantially cut down the number of crimes committed by juveniles.

He points to the driver training programs which "have been so effective, that a 10 to 20 per cent reduction in insurance premiums are now available to those successfully completing the course."

Judge Seagraves is considered an authority on the subject of juveniles and crime.

He was presented the North American Judges' Association 1966 Judicial Leadership Award for his work in helping to reduce crimes among juveniles through classroom studies.

Judge Seagraves' article "View From the Bench" and a subsequent handbook for study by elementary school pupils, "What You Should Know About the Law," have been lauded by law enforcement agencies and school authorities.

In his speech to the county mayors, Seagraves pointed up the increased laxity at home, school and church and said, "Our society is no longer the homegeneous, rural home and church centered, relatively uncomplicated culture which prevailed 50 years ago.

"At present, there is no direct way by which children learn the laws which their free society has decided upon. If the youngsters are going to be held responsible for unlawful actions in juvenile court, then it is important to be sure the child has been taught the laws he is expected to obey," Seagraves said.

The "experiment" will first be introduced into the seventh and eighth grades of the Redwood City Elementary School District.

The first year will be the "Planning Year" and data on juvenile crime will be gathered and assessed, curriculum developed in co-operation with the school system, teacher workshops held and suitably matched groups selected for the experimental and control groups, according to Seagraves.

The second and third years will include teaching three different types of curriculum: (1) What Youth Should Know About the Law (seventh grade); (2) programmed texts to be developed stressing the main offenses which bring juveniles into the courts, and (3) programmed texts plus special aids such as movies and slides.

Fourth and final year will be analyzed to determine if the delinquency rate has been affected, if juvenile attitudes have changed, and which curriculum plan has been the most effective.

Included in the list of organizations supporting Seagraves' program are the San Mateo County Law Enforcement Association, San Mateo County Human Resources Commission, County Juvenile Probation Division and the County Board of Education.

In a letter to Seagraves, County Superintendent of Schools, J. Russell Kent, said his office "enthusiastically endorses the purpose of your proposal — to improve instruction in law and its enforcement."

Kent said the undertaking was "promising and should be pursued."

The county mayors are expected to likewise endorse the project at their next regular meeting later this month.

REGIONAL GOVERNMENT

Ryan Legislation Would Add More Local Control

Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan has introduced amendments to SCR 41 aimed at bringing local control back to regional government in the Bay Area.

The amended bill was expected to be recorded by Secretary of State Frank Jordan Wednesday morning.

Last week, Ryan, backed by Assemblyman Ike Britschgi successfully tacked several amendments onto the proposed piece of legislation and allowed it to leave the Rules Committee where it had been stopgapped for more than a month by the two assemblymen.

In introducing the amendments to SCR 41, Ryan said, "The advisory committee for the regional government study must have the benefit of local elected officials' experience and knowledge.

"With the help of Assemblyman Britschgi, I held the measure up in the Assembly Rules Committee for almost a month. There, with the personal support of the majority of the councilmen in my district, along with other elected officials, I was able to modify the study," Ryan said.

Ryan represents the north San Mateo County districts.

In order to recognize the value and importance of local government affairs, Ryan's amendments declare that the cities of each county will meet and select a mayor or councilman to be come a member of the advisory committee. The amendments also call for a representative from each of the nine Bay Area boards of supervisors; increases the public members of the advisory committee from six to 12; requires at least one public hearing in each of the nine Bay Area counties; and redefines the purpose of the study: calling for consolidation of existing regional commissions.

"Through conversations and letters to city councilmen, other elected officials and my constituents, we came up with the amendments," Ryan said. "Both Assemblyman Britschgi and I were determined that without these amendments, SCR 41 would never leave the Rules Committee."

Assemblyman Ryan said the amendments have vast implications for cities with a stake in regional government. "Everyone knows that regional government already exists," he said. "The real question is how to bring local control back to city and county officials. There has been a proliferation of regional government entities which has restricted efforts of local city and county officials to control their own destinies. The purpose of my amendments is to help bring back local control."

S.S.F. Church Complex Hearing Set

The long-delayed public hearing on the proposed Roman Catholic Church-School complex in South San Francisco will be held August 14, "barring any unforeseen developments," City Planner Daniel Pass said this week.

The hearing has been continued on the planning commission agenda several months because of complications in the city's agreements with developers of the Westborough Planned Community, Caesar-Callan Homes, Inc.

Councilmen stopped all grading permits for new projects in Westborough for several months because of delays in improvements and clearance of a city park and fire station site, and the ban on new development was not lifted until a few weeks ago.

Also, the developers currently have a request for rezoning the 180-acre project to a "PC" (Planned Community) district before the city council.

City Attorney John Noonan said action on the zoning request is expected soon, "probably at the August 7 council meeting."

After the zoning change is instituted, an ordinance amendment will be required to permit construction of the $2 million church-school complex, according to the city attorney.

Pass has opposed the church-school project on grounds it would remove valuable lands from the city's tax rolls, and use up "the last area in the city suitable for residential development."

D.C. Sets Center Hearing

By FRANK LaPIERRE

The Daly City council has scheduled public hearings on the proposed Commercial Office (CO) zoning around the new $2.5 million Civic Center on August 14.

But already several influential landowners in the area have voiced vigorous opposition to the new zoning which would, in effect, clamp a tight lid on what type of business or structure is erected around the civic center at Ninetieth and Sullivan Avenue.

With the exception of planning commissioner Melvin Taylor—absent at a recent meeting of the Commission—city planners unanimously adopted a resolution (number 172) recommending to the council certain property surrounding the city hall be rezoned to CO and R-3 "to promote the orderly growth, public health, safety, comfort and the general welfare of the city."

At least three landowners in the area have aired their oppo- (Please See Page 2, Column 5)

Brisbane Mayor Fishin', Garbage Decision Stalled

By DON GRIERSON

Brisbane Mayor Dale With went fishing Monday, and the remaining four members of the city council deadlocked in a 2-2 vote on whether or not to hold a new election on the town's famous garbage issue.

The vote came after a petition for a new election was presented by former Mayor James Williams, chairman of the Brisbane Voters League.

The petition, with 551 signatures, calls for a new election "to let the people decide," and requests that the city allow the Sanitary Fill Co. and San Francisco scavengers to continue dumping in the bay of fSierra Point until a new election is held or court litigation on the issue is resolved.

Vice Mayor Robert W. McLennan and Councilman Jess Salmon voted in favor of holding the new election, and councilmen Edward A. Schwenderlauf and John L. Bell voted against it.

McLannan and Salmon said they favored calling the election because "we can't ignore the wishes of this many citizens."

Schwenderlauf and Bell said they thought it would be "improper to take action of this sort without the presence of our special counsel on the matter."

Attorney Casper Weinberger, who pleaded the city's case in the landmark trial which resulted in a court ruling upholding the anti-garbage ordinance several months ago, was not present at the meeting Monday.

Sources said the issue will "very likely" come up again at a special adjourned meeting scheduled Wednesday night.

Firemen in D.C. Win Certificates

Five members of the Daly City Fire Department received college certificates at a recognition dinner at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel, San Mateo.

Some 66 other firemen of San Mateo County received similar awards at the same time.

Firemen Alberto DaCunha and Donald May received certificates for the completion of five semesters of fire science courses at the College of San Mateo.

Captains Vernon Brooke and John Martin received certificates for the completion of ten semesters, and Capt. John Roy received an AA degree.

The courses taken are part of the Fire Science curriculum established at the college by the San Mateo County Fire Chiefs' Association. Firemen attend evening classes during their off-duty time.

Also attending the dinner, and representing the city of Daly City, were Mayor Bernard Lycett, Councilmen Edward Dennis and Anthony Giammona, and Fire Chief Herbert Ritzmann.

Suspects Park At Station In Brisbane

Two burglary suspects, chased from the Crocker Industrial Park, conveniently parked their car in front of the Brisbane police station, where they were taken into custody.

Caretaker Vince Marsili told sheriff's deputies he saw the men leaving the shed and chased them in his own car. A Brisbane police car joined the chase, which wound around the city streets and finally came to a stop in front of the police station.

Booked at county jail on burglary charges were Leland A. George, 24, of 840 Clinton Street, Redwood City, and John H. Fehner, 27, of 251 Mendocino Road, Brisbane.

ly 45 per cent of Brisbane's 1,206 registered voters.

The BVL volunteers obtained the signatures during a three-day period after Williams announced last week that the scavenger companies have offered to increase their annual "[illegible]g fee payments" from $30[illegible]o $1000,000.

The petition statement maintains Brisbane residents are facing "either a substantial tax increase or a reduction in fire protection and police service" unless the scavenger firms are allowed to continue operations in the city.

A number of persons at the meeting spoke out against holding another election, including Dr. Paul Goerke, president of Brisbane Citizens for Civic Progress, a citizens group which has been prominent in the fight against scavenger interests.

Dr. Goerke said the election would "jeopardize the city's position in the current court litigation."

He also claimed that the BVL claims that scavenger money would prevent a tax increase are unfounded, "because the law requires that the rate be set prior to August 31, and the election couldn't possibly be held prior to that date."

Assistant City Attorney John Sherman said the election could not lawfully be held without a 60-day waiting period.

Dr. Goerke and other opponents of the election proposal questioned the legality of the BVL petition, which Williams describes as an "informal petition expressing the opinion of 551 people."

Sherman pointed out that a formal petition would not be required to bring about the election, since the original anti-garbage ordinance, Ordinance 86, empowers the council to call for a new referendum.

However, the election could also be brought about by a formal "initiative petition," the attorney said.

ciation have also opposed the project on grounds the proposed high school included in the plans would create a traffic problem in the neighborhood and "bring in students, parents and automobiles from surrounding communities."

The city planner indicated last week he will recommend that the commission approve a compromise plan with the high school deleted.

Members of the Westborough Homeowners Association have also said they would have no objection to the project if the high school were eliminated.

"We feel the church, rectory and elementary school would constitute a neighborhood use, while the high school would not," Pass said.

A spokesman for the San Francisco Roman Catholic Archdiocese said church officials have not been contacted about the proposed compromise arrangement," and therefore have no opinion on the proposal."

Hearing on Proposed C-O Zone Near Civic Center

sition to the proposed zoning at both planning commission public hearings and a later council meeting setting the public hearing date.

Developer Thomas J. Callan Sr., owner of several lots in the concerned area, told the Planning Commission the proposed C-O zoning would be "too restrictive" but he would not be opposed to the changes if the C-O could be combined with existing zoning of his property.

City planner Edward Lawson explained to Callan that the CO zone would actually be less restrictive than R-3. However it would require a use permit for residential construction.

What one of the landowners had specifically wanted to know was: Can apartments be built over offices in the area?

His inquiry went unanswered for the present.

Multi-stored apartments are already occupying the west side of the Civic Center area. The new post office is located a block to the north.

In order to "protect" the civic center investment, city officials began moving towards the Commercial Office oning concept, coupled with a Design Review Board, almost at the same time the Civic Center came off the drawing boards three years ago.

"The C-O zoning would encourage uses compatible with the new Civic Center," Lawson pointed out several months ago at a council study session.

At that time, Lawson envisioned a much larger area around the Civic Center for the C-O zoning. But little by little, the area to be affected has been whittled down to about four blocks to the south, north and east of the building.

Specifically, the area includes property from 89th street to the southerly city limits, from Edgeworth Avenue to 125 feet east of Sullivan Avenue and the easterly 400 feet of the block bounded by 88th Street, 89th Street, Edgeworth Ave. and Sulligan Avenue. It also includes the rezoning of five lots on the southerly side of 88th Street which are presently zoned C-1 (Commercial) to be rezoned R-3 (residential apartments).

James Quinlan, owner of two of the affected lots (from C-1 to R-3) registered his opposition.

At Monday night's regular meeting of the City Council, another landowner, Bill Lagomarsino, voiced his opposition to the proposed zone changes "until I have more specific information concerning this matter."

Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett informed Lagomarsino he would have ample opportunity to air his views at the forthcoming August public hearings.

An even more restrictive ordinance—the Design Review Board—is still grounded, apparently awaiting the outcome of the C-O one proposals.

The Design Board would automatically review plans for any new construction in the city and would have a strong voice in judging whether the building to be erected was compatible with others in the immediate area.

This ordinance is expected to meet even more vociferous opposition than the C-O district a local landowner said last month.

Woman Routs Bruno Attacker

Police at San Bruno hunted a would-be rapist who fled in panic, shoes in hand and wearing only a T-shirt, and with a handerchief over his face, when his intended victim—a 25 year old mother of three—frightened him off with her screams during a bitter struggle last Wednesday.

Patrolman Frank Young said the attempted rape took place at 5 a.m. in the blonde housewife's ground floor apartment in the Lomita Park area.

The woman's husband was at work.

Hysterical and sobbing heavily, the woman told Young she awakened to find the man standing over her.

Clad only in a T-Shirt and shoes, the man apparently tore off a screen to a living room window to enter the apartment.

Leaning over his intended victim, his hands clutching her throat, the man warned her to "cooperate." Her screams awakened her children and she was directed to settle them down.

The woman said the man threatened to harm her two-year-old child if she did not submit quietly.

But, as he started rippping off her clothing, she fought bitterly, scratching, pinching and biting the man, scaring him off finally with her hysterical screaming, police said.

Young said the woman was unhurt, except for a facial bruise suffered when the man threw one of his shoes at her as he ran out the front door.

Bruno Child Is Injured

A six-year-old San Bruno child was hurt last Wednesday afternoon when he rode a bicycle out of a driveway and into the path of a car on Linden Avenue, police said.

Bradley C. Berger, of 756 Elm Avenue, was treated for bruises and lacerations at the San Bruno Avenue Medical Center and later released after the accident occurred at 3 p.m.

Police said the child went off the sidewalk and into the path of a car driven by Mrs. Betty Jeanne Cochran, 1540 Donner Avenue, San Bruno. Mrs. Cochran was traveling north on Linden at a slow rate of speed when the accident occurred, officers said.

Firemen Rescue Youths

Daly City firemen rescued a 13-year-old Pacfica boy from the beach near Mussel Rock Wednesday, after the youth and another boy were trapped at the bottom of a 200-foot cliff by the incoming tide.

Steven Pursch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Pursch, 420 Fremont Street, Pacifica, was pulled up the steep embankment by the fire department's rescue squad about 3 p.m.

The child was near exhaustion from his frantic efforts to scale the cliff, and received cuts and bruises during the rescue. He was given first aid at the scene.

His companion, Paul Halpin, about 14, succeeded in climbing to a point within a few feet of the top of the cliff, and reached safety before the firemen arrived.

Witnesses said another boy threw a rope to the Halpin youth.

The two boys were fishing near Mussel Rock, and decided to walk along the beach to their homes in Pacifica, according to Pursch.

They walked through a small "cave" in the rocks, then later discovered they could not continue because of the rising tide. They retraced their path, and when they reached the cave, it was under water.

Other fishermen in the area heard the boys shouting for help, and the fire department was telephoned from the Daly City dump.

A crowd of about 50 persons gathered at the scene before the rescue operation was completed.

Youths Flee Blaze

A paper products plant in South San Francisco's industrial district was gutted by flames Wednesday after a group of children set fire to stacks of paper outside the building.

Structural damage to the Presto-Pak Corp. building at 549 Railroad Avenue was estimated at $15,000 and damage to products and containers within the building was "probably at least that amount," according to Fire Chief John Marchi.

Three engine companies with 21 men battled the fire more than three hours, and another two hours was spent on the "cleaning up operation," Marchi said.

The fire started in paper stacked on pallets next to an outside wall of the plant building about 4 p.m. and "several witnesses reported seeing a small group of children running from the scene as the fire blazed up," firemen said.

Marchi said the wall of the building, made of corrugated metal, got hot enough to set fire to the paper products inside the building.

Fireman had to cut through the steel walls in order to reach the fire inside.

Two firemen received minor injuries while fighting the fire.

Jefferson High Teens took 55 members and guests on an excursion to Santa Cruz July 22.

The next Jeff High Teen Club Dance, sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department, will be today, featuring the Battle of the Bands. The dances have been very well attendes this summer and a large crowd is expected for this one.

Daly City Recreation Department's Westside Teen Club hosted "The Royal Family" and "The Legendary Past" at their third band battle of the summer held July 18.

Enthusiasm was high, as the 400 plus members and their guests danced and listened to the two groups.

Toward the end of the evening the teens voted to select their choice.

"The Royal Family," featuring a young, 3-year-old vocalist were the winners. They will be back for the August 15 dance to face the winners of yesterday's first battle.

Club members took a July 22 trip to Santa Cruz. Teens walked the boardwalk, played at the concessions (with special discounts) and lounged in the sun which finally appeared from under the overcast at 1 p.m.

The Telstars and Roof Raisers Teen Clubs will have their last dance for the summer on August 8 from 7 to 9 p.m., at the Westmoor Park Clubhouse. The featured band for the evening will be "The Royal Family."

Funds Stolen In Daly City

The Day and Night Transmission Service, 178 Starlight Avenue, was broken into last week and more than $348 in cash, several blank payroll checks and an automatic pistol were stolen, South San Francisco police report.

Entry to the building was made by prying open a side door, police said.

Thornton Approach To the Drop-Outs

The Jefferson High School District's Thornton High in Daly City is beginning to be recognized elsewhere as a potential answer to the school dropout problem.

A San Francisco television station (KPIX), which recently urged action on dropouts, followed up its plea with an accounting of what the Jefferson district is attempting to achieve with Thornton.

(The Post several months ago published a comprehensive report on Thornton's ambitions, achievements and educational requirements.)

Fred E. Walker, KPIX general manager, pointed out that Principal Floyd Gonella had explained that Thornton had begun to solve dropout problem when it first opened last September established after a study of the causes of dropouts.

Walker told his viewers:

"The Jefferson District invited students with special educational, emotiona, economic or disciplinary problems to enroll in Thornton High. One hundred boys and girls did. Thornton's faculty gears the educational process to the needs and primary interests of each student.

"There are no rigid deadlines for completion of classwork. The students proceed at their own rate under the personalized guidance of their teachers.

"At the rate they are progressing, all will be graduated from Thornton High in due course. And yet, many had been potential school dropouts before they enrolled in Thornton High.

"We believe establishment of a Thornton-type high school wherever needed would go far toward eliminating the school dropout problem in California.

"For the Thornton system is effectively simple. It copes with whatever causes a student to drop out.

To Japan

Jacklyn D. Achille (right), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Achille of 455 Eastmoor Avenue, Daly City, is en route to Matsuyama, the largest city on Shikoku Island, Japan, to spend the next month living with a Japanese family. Under the auspices of The Experiment in International Living, 32 young people boarded a Japan Air Lines Jet Courier in San Francisco on July 14 to take part in the program. The students have already spent three weeks learning to speak Japanese. After four weeks with Japanese families they will spend five days in Tokyo and about two weeks traveling in other areas of Japan, including a climb up Mount Fuji. JAL said the group will fly home September 4.

OUR OPINION

You Can't Run 'Em All

It's nice to have the world's best long-distance runner, but sometimes demands on his services get out of hand. U.S. Olympic Committee officials are upset because miler Jim Ryun turned down requests to compete in the Pan-American games.

His decision not to take part was made and announced at least two months ago and should have been no surprise to the committee. No one disputes the importance of the Pan-American games, but as Ryun points out, you can't take part in all the meets — there are too many of them.

Being the fastest man in the world must be a little like being the fastest gun in the West. Someone is always hanging around waiting for a chance to try you out.

But with only one set of legs, Ryun has to choose the meets he considers most important.

High Campaign Costs

ONE THING THAT MOST PEOPLE seem to overlook regarding the upcoming November election is the high cost of campaigning. Assuming that no one gets a clear majority and there is a runoff race in December, the winner (or new representative to Washington, which ever you prefer) will have to start all over again next year. In this case we're talking about a cool 100,000 dollars — or thereabouts.

Talking strictly dollars and sense: the people that control party campaign funds have a mighty BIG say in whose gonna run and who isn't — strictly from a financial standpoint, mind you.

Of course, there are other ways to "convince" a party member he — or she — shouldn't run at this time, because so and so is being backed financially. So-called "appointments" are one tempting bit to dangle in front of potentials who think money isn't everything.

However, if one has sufficient funds and doesn't NEED the party's financial help, or doesn't care for those promises from above, well, now, that's a horse of a different color. All one has to do is check over the potential candidates (any of which may change their minds before the October deadline) and you will know which way the tide will eventually flow — who will run and who won't!

Money a Factor . . .

Money was a factor in holding back many Demo candidates: The "Keeper of the Funds" still hasn't given any of the demo potentials a firm nod, we are told.

There are very few candidates who can carry this financial burden alone. Matter-of-fact, we know of only two. You're right on both guesses! What the party thinks, then, carries a lot more weight than most candidates will admit. This was the main reason for several "potentials" from both parties withdrawing from the battle.

WESTLAKE SHOPPING CENTER'S Gene Perry held a "get together" with a familiar face during his recent visit to Hobergs' Resort up north. Sal Carson, who performs for the Westlake Merchants' Dinner every year, (and is scheduled to appear at the Konocti Harbor Inn up at Clear Lake on Friday and Saturday nights), swapped tales with Gene during the dinner.

Seems Sal gets around and was directing his 17-piece orchestra up at Holbergs the same time as Gene decided to stop over. And incidentally, all you Carson fans will probably agree with Gene, who claims he cut his stay at the Lake short to catch the Si Zenter "Si Band" opening at Berkeley's Hotel Claremont "and found them disappointing." According to Gene, Si can't hold a candle to Sal.

Never tried it myself!

Oh, the Shame . . .

Only an "embarrassing amount" of Daly City residents showed up for that top quality performance by the Central American Ballet Troupe at the Jefferson High School gymnasium on their first appearance in that city two weeks ago. When our county is fortunate enough to persaude these young dancers to perform for us, the least we can do is attend. Hear that city officials??

DIDJA KNOW — That San Bruno's biggest industry is the military cemetery (which is full). They employ 72 workers with an annual payroll in the neighborhood of $740,000. Even though it's at capacity, the workers will continue to maintain the grounds, etc.

WHEN YOU UNDERTAKE a project the size of the new Civic Center you are bound to make a few errors. Two we can think of real fast: That ridiculous "electric vote board" (which the council has thoughtfully ripped down) and the absence of an elevator in the building.

No amount of "reasoning" by staff can explain away the reasons for NOT having installed one. From the ground level to the mayor and council offices (we ARE supposed to be able to visit with our elected officials aren't we?) is at least three floors — now tell me again we don't need that lift!

The Red Faces . . .

The group set up to study the county charter sent out a letter scheduling public hearings in Daly City on August 3. Nothing wrong in that except the assistant county manager, A. R. Middaugh, classified D.C. in District One and Pacifica in District Five. Heck, most everybody KNOWS D.C. and Pacifica are in the FIFTH DISTRICT; SSF, San Bruno, etc. are in the FIRST DISTRICT. Better study, take your studies a little more seriously, tentlemen!

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENT — The way at least one city official feels about that Residency Requirement for city employees is this: If you don't have enough pride in your city to live here — you don't have enough pride to work here. And we are still predicting it won't be lifted this year.

QUESTION DEPT. — Are they called "Flower Children" because they smell or because they look like RAGweed???

THERE'S A CERTAIN high-ranking D.C. employee that NEVER returns phone calls until he is certain you have gone home for the day. Oh, you arlready know who I mean!

VIETNAM SQUEEZE??? — Weber Electric Company is behind schedule in delivering and installing an electric "score board" in the new Daly City police department communications center. Nothing official on the reason for the delay, but one of those "unimpeachable sources" claims it's the Vietnam War pinch causing it.

ATTENTION SMOKERS — The National Cotton Council just informed us, a new completely flame proof cotton innerspring mattress and box spring set is now on the market. Doesn't that news make you warm all over? (Sorry about that!)

Band of Pioneers

From the story of the founding of San Francisco comes Evelyn Wells' novel, "A City For St. Francis."

The band of pioneers that crossed more than 1,000 miles from Mexico to the San Francisco Bay was a motley group of people.

There was Captain Anza, the leader and Father Font, Lieutenant Moraga and others whose names have never been forgotten. Some of the settlers were proud descendants of the Conquistadors, others were Indians.

While a few were rich; most were poor. Some were fired by ambition, others by a desire for adventure. Some were soldiers chosen by Captain Anza to guard the expedition.

AMONG THEM was lovely but unhappy Susana, who could not escape the remorse of a moment of indiscretion that brought death to a lover and disgrace to her proud husband Don Angel Galvan.

Throughout the story, Don Angel is a sour autocrat, the kind of a character a reader loves to hate. His enemy is Gil Jose, the soldier who loves gentle Susana.

Most Lovable . . .

By far the most loveable characters are the Perea-Nicolas, the muleteer; Tia Maria, the herb woman; and their son Felipe, a shoe maker who sings and smiles his way into the hearts of everyone in the company.

In this story there are few minor characters. The servants, the people in the nearby tents, even the horses add to the tale of the strange group that move ever forward until a letter from the governor, cruel Rivera, stops them at Monterey.

From time to time Father Junipero Serra appears to call for repentence and finally to point Susana towards a surprise ending.

"A City For St. Francis" is a good story. As a historical novel it has many peers, but it is better than many that are being written. It is an indication of what can be done with the dramatic history of California.

EVELYN WELLS, the author, is a Californian who began her career as a reporter for a San Francisco newspaper and married into one of the pioneer families.

Her book is in the tradition of California authors who have found in this state the seeds of literature.

Among them is Darwin Le Ora Teilhet whose "Road to Glory" deals with the period covered by Miss Wells.

A Comparison . . .

An interesting comparison lies in his and Miss Wells picture of Father Junipero Serra. Both authors honor him for his ability to understand his fellow men. In "A City for St. Francis" he is an evangelist before he is a man. To the other characters he is a living saint who is the object of their awe and adoration.

In Mr. Teilhet's book Junipero Serra is the leading character, a warm, kindly but very human individual with one dream and one purpose. The whole story is full of romance and high adventure. It tells of the priests, the settlers, the Indians who came to the missions that Father Serra established.

The New York Times called "Road to Glory" a book that will be treasured in many book cases.

'Alice in Wonderland' Hippie Guidebook?

Who'd have believed that "Alice in Wonderland," would become the symbol of the love generation. According to producer Sam Katzman whose film, "The Love-Ins," has opened in the Bay Area, the Carroll tale, once beloved by pink cheeked little girls who sat in window boxes on rainy afternoons daydreaming of adventures she could only participate in through fantasy represents a psychedelic experience to today's long-haired fair sex.

"You can't find the book on most university bookshelves, we were told while researching the film among the hippie communities," Katzman explained. "The image has extended into their vernacular and music, too. Listen to the Jefferson Airplane's recording of 'White Rabbit.' The book has become a hippie guide book or looking glass into a segment of hippie life.

The film was shot partly in Los Angeles and partly in Haight-Ashbury. When we questioned the difference between the two hippie groups, he told us that "San Francisco hippies are better organized."

According to the film's spokesman, Jerry Katzman, "the Diggers are training key people in their organization to take over leadership among hippies' districts around the country. They're cleaner than the hippies and far more politically minded. They want to be in the legislature, the assembly and even Congress and have already bought up land around Carson City, Nev., to build a self-governed city."

A touch of irony was added to the hippie image during their filming in Haight-Ashbury. The producer explained that Screen Extras Guild minimum salary is $350 a week, and they worked for three weeks giving each extra a total salary of more than $1,000. Once they were paid, the story goes, most of them invested $250 to join the union so they'd be rehired when the next Hollywood company comes to town.

"THE LOVE-INS," WAS CAST, written and produced by professionals, not a hippie among them. And they admitted never to having used LSD or smoked marijuana although the film depicts these elements. They didn't put these "factors down," they claim, for fear of losing the mass teen-age audience. Nor do they glamorize or romanticize the hippie life. Its statement is made against those who would organize and exploit the hippie movement.

"There's always the fear that someone could organize them for profit. Hippies are not intelligent. They're sweet, naive youngsters who blame society for the condition of the world and want to establish their own society, based on love. But one of these days someone will be charging for love-ins at Griffith Park, charging for sleep-ins and there's already plenty of money being made on the dance-ins. Our film claims that power corrupts," Katzman added.

We were told that hippies have leaders who decided which indiviudals should work in the film. The extras were given food and lodging and asked to be paid in cash.

AMONG THE MANY COMMUNITIES FORMING across the nation is the thriving group in Santa Rosa run by Lou Gottlieb, originally of the Limelighters. But the movie's producers don't feel their film will influence teen-agers to seek thrills from "acid" or "pot."

"Anyone who says this stuff isn't harmful should walk through the wards at Camarillo Hospital (a state mental institution in Southern California) and see the young people who have been reduced to vegetables through LSD," the younger Katzman commented.

Truth in Lending Bill

The "truth-in-lending" bill passed the Senate unanimously after being fought bitterly for six years. If given the final Congressional approval, it will go into effect July 1, 1969. Both the Johnson and Kennedy administrations endorsed this bill, which is designed to give the consumer a true account of the extra costs involved in the $11 billion of goods he purchases annually.

It was never pushed for legislation until President Johnson came out strongly in its favor this year. Various polls indicate that it has a much greater appeal to the consumer than the dozen pieces of other consumer-legislation of the President.

Unless the House waters down the bill merchants will be required to state the total credit cost of any item purchased on time as well as the full interest charges and any other charges expressed in dollars and cents.

All forms of consumer credit will be covered by the so-called "truth-in-lending" bill. Extra-cost disclosure on all revolving charge accounts under which less than 60 per cent of the balance is payable in one year will be required. Exceptions would be credit for business or commercial purposes, mortgage loans on real estate and loans secured by life insurance policies.

If the interest charges are figured on a monthly basis on the unpaid balance of the purchase price:

¼ of 1 per cent interest cost will be 9 per cent;

½ per cent interest cost will be 12 per cent;

1½ per cent interest cost will be 18 per cent;

2 per cent interest cost will be 24 per cent.

If the credit loan is to be repaid in 12 equal monthly installments the following table:

4 per cent yearly interest will cost 7.3 per cent;

6 per cent yearly interest will cost 10.0 per cent;

8 per cent yearly interest will cost 14.5.

10 per cent yearly interest will cost 18.0 per cent.

The Defense Department has adopted a policy requiring full disclosure of credit terms by lenders and credit sellers who go to the military to help them collect debts from servicemen. The Federal Trade Commission has also proposed retail-credit disclosure guidelines for certain transactions. Washington and Massachusetts have already enacted truth-in-lending legislation.

SCENES, SEENS AND THINGS NOTED while basking in Lake County's sun:

Pacificans Ordered To Repay Funds

Three North County women have been ordered to repay the county for excess welfare funds they admitted receiving through fraud.

Mrs. Margaret Rose Baer, 23, of 1 East 40th Avenue, San Mateo, was placed on probation for a year, ordered to make restitution of $335, and sentenced to serve five days in county jail. She pleaded guilty to charges that she failed to disclose to the welfare department that she was living with an employed man while receiving welfare payments.

Mrs. Fay G. Hess, 28, of 84 San Jose Avenue, Pacifica, was ordered to repay $618 as a condition of two years' probation. The district attorney's office charged that she failed to report the presence of a man in her home.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miles, 40, of 236 Avalon Drive, Pacifica, was placed on probation for two years and ordered to make restitution of $581 after pleading guilty to charges that she failed to report income from employment.

Mrs. Diane Bastien, 20, of 680 Roberts Road, Pacifica, was sentenced to six months' probation on condition she repay $84. It was charged that she failed to report receipt of child support payments from her husband.

D.C. Police In Narcotics Raid, 1 Held

Daly City police arrested a 17-year-old youth Thursday after they "unexpectedly" stumbled onto a quantity of narcotics and related equipment in a downtown apartment.

Police said they discovered an assortment of narcotics, needles and syringes in an apartment at 150 First Avenue while arresting Ernest Cattaneo—a San Francisco parole violator.

According to the report, San Mateo County parole officer Robert Schuster entered the apartment to arrest Cattaneo for parole violation and spotted the narcotics.

As he was taking his prisoner to a nearby patrol car, Cattaneo turned on the officer and smashed him in the face before fleeing down the street.

An unidentified neighborhood resident witnessed the attack and called Daly City police headquarters.

Officer Russell Cunningham responded and aided Schuster in recapturing the escaped prisoner.

While herding Cattaneo into the patrol car, Schuster told Cunningham what he had seen in the apartment and the pair went back to search the room.

Along with enough suspected heroin for several "fixes" the officers found needles, syringes and spoons.

A 17-year-old youth sharing the apartment with Cattaneo was arrested and sent to Hillcrest Youth Guidance Center for being in a place where narcotics are used, police said.

Sheriff Aide Is Injured

A San Bruno sheriff's deputy and his son and daughter were treated at Mary's Help Hospital Thursday following a three-car accident on Junipero Serra Boulevard in Colma.

Highway patrolmen said the deputy, Donald E. Keohane, 32, of 2690 Cottonwood Drive, had stopped his station wagon behind another car, which was waiting for a chance to turn into the Serramonte shopping center.

Keohane's car, officers said, was hit from behind by an auto driven by John D. Aranda, 18-year-old gas station attendant of 420 Citrus Street, Daly City. The youth said his brakes failed.

Keohane, who is a deputy in the San Francisco sheriff's department, was released from the hospital after treatment, as were his son, John, 6, and daughter, Darlene, 4.

Devil's Slide Car Found

An automobile reported stolen in South San Francisco at 10 a.m. Wednesday was located an hour later, at the bottom of Devil's Slide off the Cabrillo Highway near Pacifica.

California Highway Patrolmen spotted the car, an expensive 1966 model sedan, about 11 a.m.

The owner, Keith E. Belzman, 309 Airport Bouelvard, South San Francisco, reported the car was stolen from the street in front of his home.

The vehicle was totally demolished.

Another stolen automobile was found at the bottom of the slide last week, authorities said.

"DENTAL HEALTH FACTS"

What is malocclusion?

Malocclusion is irregularity of tooth position and poor fitting together of the teeth on closing the jaws. Such irregularity not only may interfere with chewing and with speech but also may lead to disease of the gums and other supporting structures of the teeth (periodontal disease). Malocclusion may also produce deformities of the face.

Dr. Campbell tries to limit his practice to the making of dental plates, partial plates, removable bridges and extractions for some; however, he recommends that you see your dentist at least twice a year in order to help prolong the use of your natural teeth. Dentures are not as efficient as healthy, natural teeth.

Daly City Playground Activities Summarized

The following is a summary of the week's activities at Daly City playgrounds:

The air rang with light hearted noise as hundreds of children became progressively enchanted with games of fun for candy and prizes. Last week the Annual Daly City Recreation Department Penny Carnival was moved from its bleak storage to a week of sunshine on the playgrounds. Then the games and booths were stored again for another year, but the children's memories will remain as a reminder of another special summer.

Next week the youngsters will have an opportunity to swim and sun at beautiful Lake Anza in the Berkeley Hills. Information for this outing is available from the playground recreation leader. A limited number may attend, so it would be wise to sign up soon

ARTS AND CRAFTS

By DONNA ANDERSEN

"Oh!" "Ick!" "Is it real?" "Is it alive?" These were just a few of the comments and questions that were aroused by last week's Arts and Crafts project: The fish print. The end product is an elegant wall hanging in an oriental style. But to get to the end product the youngsters have to work with a real, eatable, smellable fish. Youngsters were happy with their results — especially the boys, who were given the special task of moving the sea creatures about. Most of the helpful lads would have liked to keep it for themselves.

Daly City youngsters have been promised on interesting project for this week also. So any parents desiring colorful stationery need only send their children to the nearest playground or park facility for this week's Arts and Crafts class.

COLMA SCHOOL

By ROY REITZ

The Boys' Softball Tournament is still in progress with games being played every afternoon. In the B Division (boys' 8-11 yrs.) a team made up of Tom Baker, John Moura and Ted Wenat leads with a 3 win 1 loss record. A Girls' Kickball Tournament is beginning this week for girls aged 11 to 14. This tournament will be held in the evening from 7:15 to 8:30 p.m.

PALISADES PARK

By STEVE WILSON

Veteran lizzard cultivator, Steve Shubunka, emerged the first place winner in Palisades Park's Lizzard Contest. Steve took first place in two of the three catagories (largest lizzard and longest tail) while Paul Quibell's lizzard took the other catagories as his lizzard's tongue popped out of his mouth the most times in one minute. But, since Ricky Perone's lizzard was second largest in size and tail, he edged Paul for second place.

Remember, every Wednesday at 2 p.m. is the Weekly Weeny Roast!

MIDWAY SCHOOL

By MIKE CIARDELLA

Midway School held a gigantic Bar-B-Que, on the playgronud. Children from all over Bayshore brought food. Chefs Ciardella and Bellman Bar-B-Qued over 200 hots dogs, 5 steaks, 20 hamburgers and a chuck roast. Ann Acierto provided tremendous assistance. Needless to say, the activity was a big success. Some of the youngsters who made this so successful are as follows: Ike Allmond, Bill Tornay, James Ramsey, Debra Leasua, Pete Leasau, Ralph Rhodes, Dave Castro, Tom Castor, Bob Liedtke, Ron Robbins, Sala Leasau, Kim Quinteras, Jeff Brown, Barry Downall, Bob Downing, Mike Trujillo, Jackie Acierto, Dommie Acierto, Dave Turnbull, Leslie Reyes, Lynn Derrick, Phyllis Derrick, Bill Fischer, Ione Lara, June Lara, Susie Machi, Janet Broda, Beth Derrick and Larry Miller.

In the Paddle Pool competition Jimmy Junst came in first with Steve Price second and John Rodriquez third.

GEORGE WASHINGTON

By TOM MARTINEZ

This was the site of many exciting events last week. First of all, the smaller children aged 7 to 11, held a barbeque cookout, under the direction of Recreation Leader Tom Martinez and Recreation Aide Mike Chelone. Those included in this activity were: Josephine Medina, Delmas Allen, Terry Klein, George Acevedo, Keith Jackson, Ricky, Sidney, Reginald and Norman Green, Wayne Martin and Carl Ellis. Also three tournaments were held . . . chess, ping-pong and carroms. The Washington softball team has an outstanding record of 3-1. Member of the team are: Gil Acevedo, Don Pipkins, Phil Medina, Mike Williams, Ron Hackett, Tony Chevez, Cavelle Winding, Kevin Adams, Ricky Neuman and Mike Winding and Gary Bender.

WESTMOOR PARK

By DAVE BARRY

Westmoor Park held its Annual Summer Hobby Show last Friday. The show included model planes, dolls, model cars, stamp collections, rock collections and coin collections. Exhibiting a large collection of rocks and winning top honors was Monika Zumsteg. Taking second with her coin collection was Cindy Bergstrom. Third went to Nancy Ganucctii for her rock collection.

Westmoor Park Mets had their victory string stopped at "seven" by F. D. Roosevelt. The Mets won the first game 4-3 behind the power hitting of coach Teddy Greg and Larry Washington. F. D. R. won the second game 5-2 with Don Thuener showing the big bat. Last Friday, the Mets picked up two more wins over Daniel Webster by scores 5-4 and 8-5, again coach Teddy Grey led the wins along with John, Rich and Wayne Murray.

WESTLAKE SCHOOL

By JOE GALBO

The bicycle competition was very successful. The overall winner was Doug Clapper. 35 points was possible: he was awarded 28 points. Other winners were Ben Aragona in the 7-10-year-old group. Lou Hutson won the 13 and over with Mike McVay in a close second. The older "fellas" led by Mike Dikas are doing a professional type job of fixing up of the baseball diamonds. The special activity of the week which takes place tomorrow is a girls' softball game. The ages are from 12 to 15 years.

The last no-hit game pitched against the Pittsburgh Pirates was hurled by Sam Jones of the Chicago Cubs in 1955.

Bill Mazeroski, who says he has no desire to manage in the major leagues, is the captain of the Pittsburgh Pirates. The second baseman teamed with shortstop Gene Alley to set a National League double play record last year — 215.

Perils of Fame

One of the funniest sports stories we've heard this year concerns Jack Schwarz, administrative, secretary of the Giant farm system and, as we noted a couple of weeks ago, San Mateo resident.

That item in our column about Schwarz's local residency is what recalled the story, when Schwarz good-naturedly informed us he didn't appreciate the item because of a previous experience with a "fan" and neighbor.

To appreciate the story, one must understand that Schwarz is a modest man who values his privacy. With this knowledge as background, we allow Schwarz to tell his story;

"When the Giants first moved West, I was living in (Blank — a small Peninsula community) and trying to be anonymous. My best neighbor was a guy named (Blank) who had no idea who I was because he never said a thing, but even a hello or a nod of the head. He was an ideal neighbor. Minded his own business, quiet, he made life a pleasure.

"Then one day I'm anonymously painting the front of my house on top of a 20 foot ladder and I hear a strange voice down below me, a voice I had never heard before.

" 'Hey, Schwarz,' the voice says, 'when the hell are you guys going to get some pitching.' "

"I look below and it's Mr. (Blank), my perfect neighbor. Somebody had told him who I was."

Pacifica's dandy fielding shortstop, Rich Morales, was promoted by the White Sox last week to their AAA Pacific Coast League affiliate, Indianapolis.

Rich stepped right into the regular lineup, and in his first seven games went 5 for 25 (two doubles), drove in a run and scored three. Defensively, he made four errors, all of which came in his sixth and seventh games.

If there are any boxing buffs still around, it might interest you to know if you already don't, that one of the country's most famed fight arnas of the early part of the century was located right at Sickles Avenue and Brunswick Street.

It was called Coffroth's Arena, and hosted some of the world's best fithts. Willie Ritchie, now a San Mateo resident, won his lightweight title from Ad Wolgast in the arena. Another fight which became famous was the spectacular 42 rounder between Fighting Dick Hyland and Leach Cross. The fight's fame, however, wasn't completely due to the skills of Hyland and Leach. In the later rounds the fog rolled in so densely that ringsiders weren't able to follow the action unless the boys happened to be fighting in the side of the ring nearest them.

But at least in those days they only had to drive horses through that stuff.

Another boxing note, while we're on that kick.

San Francisco heavyweight Willie Meehan is well known as one of the few guys who ever beat Jack Dempsey, although the feat is usually accompanied by an asterisk which noted that it was only in a four rounder when Dempsey was a skinny kid.

What hardly anybody ever notes, however, is that rollypoly Meehan beat Dempsey TWICE and also held him to two draws (in four rounders.) Dempsey, for the record, held one four round decision over Willie.

MORE LOCAL NOTES:

Some people win, some lose, and that's life, etc.

Dan Frisella, of San Mateo's Serra High (alma mater of Jim Fregosi), was called up from Jacksonville by the Mets to help strengthen their pitching staff . . . Little Half Moon Bay, which has a lot of good baseball players, won the 1967 Pacifica Little League championship unbeaten . . . Pacifica's Dennis Humbert, only seven years old, won a gold medal and was the standout local performer in the Peninsula Tigers' Annual Class B swim meet at Serra High . . . Pacificans Bob Rowell and Bud Gillam are having manufactured their "Hydro-Skat," basically a motorcycle on water which is being billed as "America's exciting new water-sport funmobile." . . . San Mateo's track mother, Pat Winslow, earned a pentathlon spot on the U. S. Pan-Am track team.

On the other side of the coin, Terra Nova lost one of its best faculty golfers when Walt Gloistein went to Westmoor as a Vice-Principal.

And somewhere in between winning and losing, Pacifica Invader first baseman Art Belli was married.

In our continuing efforts to needle the Little League into extinction (which won't work) or a change of philosophy (which appears ti have less of a chance than extinction), may we quote Len Gabrielson, former Giant, current Dodger, from a recent Sporting News interview:

"Kids are not ready for petitive frustrations at Little League age. About 14 is the right time to start bearing down. It's enough for them to get a taste of it in high school competition."

Thank you, Len.

The Sporting News 1967 college All American baseball team, incidentally, lists five Californians of the 10 man team. Four are from Northern California, one from San Mateo County. That's Jan Dukes of Millbrae, out of the University of Santa Clara. Three Stanford Indians made the squad.

Last week we did a piece on former University of California players now in or near the majors. One of them was top Giant draft pick Bill Frost.

Frost, who played with Cesar Gutierrez last year at Fresno, thinks Cesar is the greatest, and contends that Gutierrez looked so rocky with the Giants early in the season only because he wasn't ready.

Frost may have a point. Gutierrez has always been acknowledged as a fine glove man with good speed. What most people don't realize is that the 24 year old shortstop has hit over .300 in three of his five minor league years and has been among the top PCL hitters almost all of this season.

The Giants need a shortstop but haven't been able to trade for one. If Gutierrez could field in the majors like he has in the minors, and hit even .250, the Giants might have the man they want in their own organization. And best of all, they wouldn't have to give up a thing in return. As pennant contenders, to get a shortstop from another organization the Giants will have to play through the teeth.

TAG ENDS: So you want proof that soccer has a long way to go before it can compete with the Big Three of baseball, football and basketball? The Sporting News recentyl announced it will officially honor the soccer Player of the Year. Grand prize: A Volkswagen.

If you still don't think Mickey Mantle is fabulous, consider this random statistic. Batting left handed ONLY, Mantle would still rank tenth on the all-time homerun list. By the end of the season, he could rank seventh or eighth as a lefty only.

Dads, Gnats And Hofbrau Lead League

The OLM Dads continued to lead the Eastern Division of the Daly City Recreation Department's adult slow-pitch softball league this week, after thrashing John's 76 by a 20-11 score.

Leading the Dads to their seventh victory were homerun hitters Jack Breslin and Dave McCann.

In other Eastern Division action, the Mets romped past the Popeyes, 27-13, and Servomation teams each picked up easy victories.

Servomation and Church of the Nazarene will meet in a playoff this week to resolve their tie for second place.

STANDINGS	W	L
OLM	7	1
Church of Nazarene	6	2
Daly City Mets	5	3
H.A. Men's Club	3	5
Popeyes	3	5
John's 76	2	6

In the Western Division, the Gnats picked up their sixth win against one defeat to maintain a two game lead.

The Gnats swamped the third place All-Stars, 13-1.

A two-hit game by pitcher Jerry Scaeffer and the power hitting of Lee Attabit sparked the J and J Richfield team to a 4-1 upset victory over the Daly City Drugs.

The J.C. Penney team handed the Flying Goose Tornadoes their fifth loss of the season by a lopsided 12-2 score.

Pacifica Pastor Is on Vacation

The Rev. Elmer Laursen, Protestant chaplain at the University of California Hospital, San Francisco Medical Center, will be guest minister August 6, 13 and 20 at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Pacifica.

The Reverend Swendseid, pastor of the church, is on vacation.

Reverend Laursen, a Lutheran minister, is an accredited chaplain supervisor under the Institute of Pastoral Care, Inc., and conducts full and part-time clinical training programs at the medical center for pastors and seminarians of different denominations.

Bethlehem Lutheran Church, located on Hickey Boulevard, just off Skylin in Pacifica, holds services at 9 and 11 a.m. Sunday with Sunday School classes at 10 o'clock.

Guest Speakers for Westside Baptist

The Rev. and Mrs. Fred Thomas, who returned this week from their second term of foreign missionary service under the Baptist General Conference Foreign Mission Board in Toledo, Cebu, Philippine Islands, will be the guest speakers at the Sunday Church School Hour at 9:45 a.m., and morning worhsip hour at 11 o'clock at Westside Baptist Church, 2322 Crestmoor Drive, San Bruno.

Reverend Thomas is a graduate of Bethel College and Seminary, St. Paul, Minn. He and his wife were appointed to the field of Philippine Islands, and began their work there in 1958.

In 1963, while home on furlough, they were speakers at Westside Baptist Church, and since then, have been special interest missionaries of the church.

A highlight of this last term on the field has been the founding and establishing of the Toledo Baptist Church, Toledo, Cebu, a city of 75,000. The church is now self-supporting, and recently called their own national pastor.

While on furlough, they will be residing in St. Paul, Minn., as they will be taking some further studies, and engaging in deputation work for the mission board.

There will be no Sunday evening service August 6, since Westside Baptist will join Lakeside Baptist Church, 1515 Third Avenue in Oakland, for a Missionary Rally with the Thomas's.

At the beginning of this evening service at 7 o'clock, Pastor A. David Donnelly will conduct a baptismal service.

Prayer and Bible Study Hour will be at 7:45 p.m. today at the church parsonage, 3370 Longview Drive, San Bruno.

Month Off For SSF Minister

While Pastor Irvine Tweet of Our Redeemer's Lutheran Church is taking a vacation, intern pastor Larry Nelson has assumed preaching and other pastoral responsibilities for the urch.

Pastor Tweet is taking off a month for study, travel, and relaxation — returning to the pulpit on August 23.

In the meantime any needs for pastoral care should be addressed to the church office (588-7139) and provisions will be made.

Last Sunday at 609 Southwood Drive, the Hi-League of Our Redeemer's staged an evening of music and discussion.

Entertainers from "Jonah's Wail", the coffee house of the Student Christian Center of San Jose State, sang and lead the discussion.

Dances And A Weeding Party Slated

"Weeding Party" to improve the landscaping of the Temple Jeudea grounds will be held Sunday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

All men and boys (women are invited too) who would like to help are requested to call Fred Angress, (566-8666).

Three additional teen dances are scheduled for August 5, 12, and 26 at the Temple on Brotherhood Way. The dances are from 8 to 11 p.m. Live music will be provided by the Gossimer Kyte group.

All high-school age teens are invited to attend at $1.50 per person. Sport dress is requested.

Parcel Post In Daly City

Daly City Postmaster Vincent P. Murphy has announced that parcel post deliveries in Daly City have been expanded from five to six days a week.

The boundaries of the expanded service include all units of Daly City and Colma.

This is in line with a recent directive from Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien following the signing of the post office department appropriation bill by President Johnson. The legislation contains an $8.5-million item for restoration of the six-day a week delivery which had been cut back in May, 1964, as an economy measure.

Nearly 5,000 cities are affected, Postmaster Murphy said.

The Daly City postal official noted that the improved service will remove an inequity for many business and residential routes.

Postal customers served by "motorized" letter carriers have been receiving six-day deliveries all along. They were not covered by the 1964 cutback inasmuch as carriers on vehicles can deliver parcels of any size. Customers living on routes served by foot carriers have received larger parcels from a five-day a week parcel post route covered by a truck. Carriers on foot only deliver small packages.

Pastor Stram Picks Topic

"The Guidance of God for 20th Century People" will be one of a series of messages from the Book of Romans, to be given by Pastor Walter Stram of the Peninsula Church of Christ (Christian).

The first sermon of the series will be given during this Sunday's worship hour, starting at 11 a.m., age the meeting place at Angus Avenue and Masson Street, San Bruno.

MRS. JAMES MONARES (Marilyn Gottlieb)

Colorado Home For Newlyweds

At home in Fort Collins, Colo., are Mr. and Mrs. James Michael Monares who were married recently at St. Edmund's Episcopal Church in Pacifica.

The bride is the former Marilyn Louise Gottlieb, whose parents, Mrs and Mrs. Allan D. Gottlieb of Pacifiia, hosted the post-nuptial reception at the church. James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Monares of Daly City.

For her wedding, Marilyn selected a daisy lace cage over taffeta with long sleeves and a satin cowl neckline. A panel train of the same lace was banded in satin. The bride completed her costume with a bouffant illusion veil, trimmed in pearls and caught by a crown of stephanotis.

Karen Girton, her cousin's maid of honor, wore a light blue crepe dress banded at the waistline with white daisies. A single row of the daisy motif extended to the hemline. Cathy O'Neil, the bridesmaid, chose a similar costume.

Thomas Martinez, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man and Dan Girton, cousin of the bride, ushered.

Both Marilyn and James received their degrees from the College of San Mateo in June and he will continue his studies at Colorado state University.

The bride also attended Terra Nova High School. She is the sister of Alan, David, Randy, and Leonard Gottlieb and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gottlieb, who came from their home in Saugus for the wedding.

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS

By DONALD C. WAITE

THE "SOUL" OF YOUR LIVING ROOM

The "soul" of your living room, and for that matter, the "soul" of your entire home, is the sociable groupings you give your sofa and chairs.

No matter how beautiful your furniture is, it will not be completely effective if your family and your friends have difficulty in carrying on conversation because the furniture is arranged poorly.

Therefore, instead of just lining up chairs all around the walls of a living room as many people do, make sure you consider placing them in such a way so that comfortable conversation can be carried on from each of the various chairs in your room.

In a big room, it's usually a good idea to have two or more small conversation areas instead of one great ring of chairs.

It's a good idea to have a few lightweight, moveable chairs that can be easily added to a certain area when you want to increase a conversation grouping.

In most cases, don't let a chair stand all by itself in a room, but rather, make it have a relationship to some grouping in the room.

When it comes to sofas and chairs along with all furniture, we invite you to see our fine selection: and just as important, we'll be happy to help you with ideas on how to have effective arrangements of furniture in your home.

Our decorators, here at Sterling Furniture in Westlake Shopping Center, are at your service no matter what your decorating problems may be. We are open Wednesday and Frdiay evenings 'til 9 p.m. for your shopping convenience or call PL 6-7500.

Foggy Day Coffee Cake

Good morning, good cooks.

And a good morning it is, sunny and warm, or it was when I wrote the column.

It just may be cold and foggy today.

Better say, "Hope it's sunny and warm." If not, here are some delicious coffee cake recipes — just baking them will make the day seem beautiful.

And, tasting the coffee cake will make the day seem heavenly!

BY A HAPPY coincidence this first recipe even has a name that makes you think of sunny beaches with the warm waves lapping on the sand, Caribbean Coffee Cake.

Inspired?

Here are the measurements and the method for creating this delight.

CARIBBEAN COFFEE CAKE

½ cup borwn sugar
½ teas. cinnamon
1 Tbsp. butter, melted
1 Tbsp. flour
½ cup chopped nuts

Combine the one-half cup brown sugar, one-half teaspoon cinnamon, one tablespoon each melted butter and flour and the one-half cup nuts. Mix well and set aside.

½ cup butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, separated
1½ cups flour
1 teas. salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1-3 cup milk
1 large or two small ripe bananas

Cream the one-half cup shortening and gradually add the one cup of sugar. Separate the eggs and add the two egg yolks to the creamed mixture and beat well.....

Sift the one and one-half cups flour with the one teaspoon salt, and two teaspoons baking powder. Add alternately with the one-third cup of milk to the creamed mixture.

Mash the banana and add to the creamed mixture.

Lastly, beat the two egg whites until stiff, but not dry and fold into the batter.

Pour four-fifths of the batter into a well greased 9x9-inch square pan. Sprinkle the filling lightly over batter. Then drizzle the remaining batter over the filling. It is not necessary to completely cover it. Let it show through. As the cake bakes the batter spreads and the filling looks attractive peeping through the top.

Bake in 350-degree oven 40 to 45 minutes or until brown.

I'M SO EXASPERATED with myself: Had a wonderful recipe tested and ready to share with you. But — I've lost it.

So, instead of my sharing a recipe with you, I want to ask you to share one with me. Do any of you have a recipe or a coffee cake that calls for cooked oatmeal? I remember I used quick-oats and poured boiling water over them and set them aside to add to the recipe later. It also used cinnamon and nutmeg and had a frosting that you broiled for a few minutes.

YET, I do have another one to share. This is quick and easy and is topped with jam and a mixture of flour, sugar and spice. It is delicious served warm, and is probably good cold — but it didn't last long enough for me to find out.

JAM CRUMB CAKE

½-cup shortening
1-3 cup sugar
1 teas. vanilla
1 egg
2 cups flour
1½ teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
1-3 cup milk
½ cup thick jam

Cream the one-half cup shortening, the one-third cup sugar and one teaspoon vanilla until fluffy. Add the one egg.

Sift the two cups of flour, one and one-half teaspoons baking powder and one-fourth teaspoon of salt together. Add to creamed mixture alternately with the one-third cup milk.

Pour into greased and floured 9x9-inch square pan. Spread the one-half cup of thick jam (I used black cherry—yum!) over batter and sprinkle with crumb topping. Bake 375-degrees for 30 minutes. Serve warm.

TOPPING

3 Tbsp. flour
¼ cup sugar
½ teaspoon cinnamon
2 Tbsp. butter

Combine the three tablespoons flour, one-fourth cup sugar, one-half teaspoon cinnamon and the two tablespoons butter. Work together and sprinkle on top of cake.

THIS RECIPE is for a delicious coffee cake that is made from a mix and jazzed up with pineapple and cottage cheese.

FIRST DRAIN ONE FLAT CAN OF CRUSHED PINEAPPLE WELL.

Combine the package cake mix with the two eggs, one-half cup pineapple juice (add water if necessary to make the one-half cup liquid) and the two-thirds cup cottage cheese. Beat well.

Pour into a 9x9x2-inch greased and floured pan. Spread the topping mixture over all and dot with butter. Bake at 350-degrees for 35 to 40 minutes. Serve hot, or delicious cold.

TOPPING

y-cup brown sugar
½-teaspoon cinnamon
¼-teaspoon nutmeg
½-cup chopped nuts
drained pineapple

Combine the one-half cup brown sugar, one-half teaspoon cinnamon, one-fourth teaspoon nutmeg, one-half cup chopped nuts and drained pineapple.

Spoon over top of cake and dot with butter.

A Jefferson Scholar

LINDA MORESCO graduated in June from Jefferson High School, one of the highest, scholastically, in her class, and one of the most active members of the high school community. Now with one eye on the "wide blue yonder" and the other on the fascinating and exotic places on the globe, she is preparing to enter College of San Mateo next month.

The future will provide Linda with a chance to travel about the world as an airline hostess if all her current plans work out satisfactorily, and it is to help those plans develop properly that Linda is preparing to attend college this fall.

"I have selected a career as an airline hostess because I enjoy working and meeting different people. I also enjoy traveling and seeing all of this world that we live in so I am going to take nursing courses at CSM so I will qualify for a position with one of the airlines," Linda explained.

HER DELIGHT in working with others has been strongly evidenced during her years at Jefferson by her involvement in many student activities. She participated in Jefferson's Model Senate, was a member of the Rally Club, which helped promote school spirit, and she served on her class's executive board.

She was president of the senior class in the fall of 1966 and was student term. She was elected junior class treasurer, during her sophomore year and also was class vice president.

She was voted the Most Spirited Senior Girl. As a member of the executive board Linda had the opportunity to take part in many conferences which helped her become aware of student problems and interests not only in Jefferson but in other schools.

Linda went to Jefferson four years ago after graduating from Colma Intermediate School. Prior to that she had attended Jefferson Elementary School. Born in San Francisco 18 years ago, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Moresco, and the sister of Mrs. Cathy Lunch. She has lived all of her life in Daly City.

I AM going to miss my high school friends, the teachers, the night basketball games, the dances and the overall atmosphere of Jefferson," Linda commented upon graduating. She especially liked sewing classes, history and dancing.

"I enjoyed history classes, learning about the events of the past and studying various races of people. And, I enjoyed the dances. I like going to the dances very much. It's fun to learn the current steps and fun to create your own," she commented.

One of her favorite activities away from school has been bowling though she admits to having an average which is not very high.

Her years at Jefferson were made memorable by the fine relationship she developed with several teachers but especially with Galloway, who taught her business class and instructed her in the subject dearest to many high school students' hearts — driver education.

In a serious vein Linda considers good citizenship the greatest responsibility of every student who graduated this spring.

"Today's high school graduate is the adult, leader and good citizen of tomorrow. I hope that I will achieve success in my attempt to fulfill the role of a good citizen by furthering my knowledge with higher education, and later, by observing life from different parts of this country and from spots about the world. I hope this will make me a good person and a better citizen for my community, Linda concluded.

ANOTHER recent graduate, with a doctorate in dental surgery, Dr. Troy E. Daniels, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Troy C. Daniels of Westlake, will marry Leslie Hind of Los Altos in ceremonies to be held this weekend.

Miss Hind is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Hind of Los Altos.

The doctor and his bride will live in New Orleans, where he has accepted a post as resident in the New Orleans Public Health Hospital.

Nyla Puccinelli, Dr. William Moore Exchange Vows

Nyla Marie Puccinelli and Dr. William Branom Moore were married in a recent ceremony at St. Cecelia's Catholic Church, with a reception following at the Alta Mira Hotel in Sausalito.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Puccinelli recited her vows in a gown of ivory organza trimmed with imported lace and seed pearls and featuring a cathedral train. Her veil was fingertip length.

Mrs. Henry Puccinelli was the honor attendant for the bride and the bridesmaids included Mrs. Robert Fennell and Gloria Puccinelli. Susan Puccinelli was the junior bridesmaid.

William, the son of Dr. and Mrs. William Moore of St. Louis, Mo., was attended by Maj. Ben Ruble, USAF as best man. Maj. John D. Gabriel, USAF, Henry H. Puccinelli, brother of the bride, and Roger Brink seated the guests.

The bride is a graduate of Mercy High School, City College of San Francisco, and San Francisco State College and has been teaching in Daly City. Her husband is a captain in the Air Force medical corps. He is an alumnus of the University of Notre Dame and University of Missouri Medical School.

They will live at an Air Force base in Germany where Dr. Moore is stationed.

DR. AND MRS. WILLIAM MOORE

Washington, D.C., Home For Couple

Dorothy Ruth Getchel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Getchel Jr., of Daly City, and Lt. Louis F. Rolla, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Rolla of Redwood City, exchanged vows recently at Mt. Carmel Church.

A reception at the Redwood City Elks Club followed the wedding.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and Elaine Roccos was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Nancy Veach and Mrs. Floran Kedic.

Dianne Getchel was flower girl.

James P. Homan was best man, and Ed Cardona, Bob Plant, Bob Kerr and Donald Getchel served as ushers.

The bride wore a semi-"A" dress with a train from the shoulders and lace sleeves.

The couple is living in Washington, D.C., after a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.

Oil Paintings On Display

Thirty and One Artists are now sponsoring an exhibit of oil paintings by their member, Myra Tennier, at the Visitacion Branch of the Bank of America, at Leland and Old Bayshore, San Francisco.

A native of Berkeley, Mrs. Tennier was an art major in school, and has studied locally under Fred Robles, Leona Lee and Richard Heidseik. A member of Thirty and One Artists and the Palo Alto Art Club, she has exhibited locally and in Greece where she lived for two years.

Teen Club Members Have 'Unusual' Party

The Know Names Junior Teen Club held the most unusual beach party ever sponsored by the Daly City Department of Recreation at Montara Beach July 22.

The usual sand, sun, water, roasted hot dogs and soda pop were there.

The unusual things at this beach party started with the 20-foot flag that the youngsters built to designate their area on the beach.

A professional folk guitarist and singer entertained the youngsters beside a huge beach fire and a sand dog sled provided sand rides. There also was a scavenger hunt. To win, the participants had to find a dead sea gull. Danny Walter somehow managed to locate the only dead sea gull for miles and he won hte hunt.

At 5 o'clock the flag was lowered, the fire doused and all the Know Namers left the beach heading home to prepare for their next activity, a surprise event; information to be mailed members.

The Provisional League of Women Voters of North San Mateo County is conducting an extensive voter registration campaign for the upcoming Congressional election.

Mrs. Bernard Hyman, voters' service chairman, reminded residents that if they did not vote in the last general election or have moved or changed their name since then, they must re-register before September 21 in order to vote.

Voters must be a resident of California for one-year and of the county 90 days. Naturalized citizens should take their papers with them when registering.

Following dinner that evening, touring will begin by bus to the impressive memorials, including Washington, Lincoln, Jefferson and the National Archives.

Sunday mass will be attended at the nation's largest Roman Catholic church — Shrine of Immaculate Conception, in all its splendor. Following tour of the shrine will be those of a Franciscan Monastery, and National Cathedral.

Tuesday will highlight the gleaming white-domed Capitol. Breakfaast will be in the House dining room with a representative from the late J. Arthur Younger's office, followed by a tour of the chamber, Senate and Captiol building. The afternoon includes the Grant memorial, Natural History Museum and F.B.I. offices. The evening will end at the Marine Memorial with a parade.

Wednesday morning's agenda will include the White House, with a trip to the Kennedy gravesite and the Tomb of the Unknowns at Arlington.

In the afternoon the troop will leave the city to visit Georgian Mt. Vernon in its colonial elegance. Thursday morning they will bus 153 miles into the Virginia countryside to step back in time to the enchantment of Colonial America as restored in Williamsburg.

Friday, box lunches will be carried to Maryland as the Scouts view Annapolis. The afternoon will touch in Philadelphia, at Independence Historial Park with the Liberty Bell, Independence Hall and the writings of the Declaration of Independence. The evening will mark arrival in New York.

Girls would not be girls without their shopping, and Saturday will include exploration of N.Y.'s many stores and shops. The evening will be climaxed with the Rockettes' show at Rockefeller Center in Radio City.

August 28 the modernistic UN complex will be visited. Lunch will be in the Delegates' dining room. At 7:15 United Flight 33 will wing the party once again westward on return to International Airport,

Scholars Win KC Awards

Marian Council No. 3773, Knights of Columbus, has awarded two additional Scholarships this year.

In the past the Council has been able to present only one award, but due to the huge success of their fireworks stand this year the additional funds were available.

The council selected George Leo Abrahamshon and Denise Lapachet of their awards.

Abrahamshon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Abrahamshon of 732 Washington Street, Colma. He attended Holy Angels' School and will use the award to attend Sacred Heart High School in San Francisco. His older sister Rosemary was the recepient of the award last year.

Denise Lapachet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lapachet of 606 Orange, Daly City. She also is a graduate of Holy Angels and will use the award to attend Mercy High School in San Francisco.

The formal presentation of the awards will be made at the past grand knights dinner in August.

Alexi's Zorba Restaurant Now Serving Luncheons

THE NOON TIME CROWDS at Alexi's Zorba, the elegant, new Greek restaurant in Burlingame, have been almost as large as the regular weekend dinner patronage since inaugurating the 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. luncheon policy. Chef Peter Alex' mid-day menu selections range from Augolememon (Greek soup) to salads, sandwiches, and Zorba's specialties, such as Bar-B-Que or Shish-Kebabs. Daily chef specials change five times a week. The dessert rundown, headed by Baklava, guarantees sweet tooth gratification. Ingrid, lovely wife of co-owner Mike Kurkoutakis, is your luncheon hostess . . . 35 cent drinks for the ladies and free orchids are attracting the gals to Hi-Fi Room South on Monday nights. Dapper Ben Muniz is usually on hand to greet and meet the fair sex. Hours for the specially-priced drinks are from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m.

BANQUET ROOMS of the New Southern are always in great demand. Besides the numerous private gatherings, co-owner Nick Sbarra says that the local Lions Club meets weekly, and that such organizations as the Sierra and Optimist groups meet regularly every other week. One look at the "Southern's" accommodations and you'll readily understand why there are so many banquet bookings at this South San Francisco restaurant . . . Phil Lehr, well known for his inventive merchandising ideas, has a new one — an Instant Credit Card. You just give Phil one of your business cards, he rubber stamps it with his okay and your account is opened on the spot . . . Don Dianda, boss at Doros gourmet restaurant in San Francisco, is acknowledged to be one of the finest makers of a Caesar Salad on the West Coast.

THE UNIQUE PIANO STYLINGS of Gary Long are a perfect match for the selective menu offerings served in the luxurious Royal Hall dining room at Fred and Jerry Rapp's Holiday Inn, South San Francisco . . . Daily luncheons are held in the Gay 90's atmosphere of the Iron Duke, a popular cocktail spot located in the heart of San Francisco's financial district. The third floor Red Parlor Room is an ideal place to hold sales meetings, wedding receptions, or any type of party . . . Tommy Phipps is back behind the plank at Fabbro's in Redwood City telling tall tales about his recent vacation days in Illinois, while mixing "cool ones" during the luncheon and dinner hours . . . Lew Lehr has given in to the requests of many people at his Steak House in San Francisco's Marina. Lew now serves his choice Broiled Lobster Tails every night instead of just on Fridays.

TOTIE FIELDS, the roly-poly comedienne who has been called "the female Jackie Gleason," heads the marquee in the new show at Bimbo's 365 Theater Restaurant, San Francisco. Also featured is exciting singer Freddie Paris. Totie Fields is to plump girls what Phyllis Diller is to "the skinny set." She is a gifted comedienne who knows how to turn a glandular problem into a very funny asset. Freddie Paris, tall and handsome former football star, sings a love song in a warm and moving manner which is especially appealing to women, but also has a strong masculine appeal. His first records for R.C.A. "Take Me As I Am" and "It's Okay to Cry Now" were released in June. The orchestra is under the direction of Dick Foy. . . .

LAUREL LEE has joined the Topless girls at Gomans' Gay 60's on San Francisco's Broadway. The Gay 60's has the biggest group of topless dancers in S.F. . . . Besides being a pop place to go in North Beach for super size cocktails, Gold Street now specializes in gourmet steak dinners, including salad and potatoes. Luncheons, as well as dinner, are served in the gay atmosphere of the old-style salon, with every night at midnight a New Year's Eve party. No minimum charge . . . John Stamatis, who plays in the Balkan Trio at the Balkan Village, is known as "King of the Bouzouki." Born in Athens, he started his musical career at 13. Emigrating to the U.S. in 1958, Stamatis starred in top Grecian night clubs in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles and San Francisco. His new LP record album is a magnificent collection of Greek music and a superb testimony to his great artistic talent.

PENINSULA DINERS are greatly impressed with The Matterhorn Swiss restaurant in Burlingame and its owners, Wilfried and Marion Blarer, a charming European couple with a flair for the extraordinary. The Matterhorn features dining by candlelight, and superb Continental food. For pure palate satisfaction, an extensive wine selection, both imported and domestic, has been added . . . The Mirettes (formerly the Ikettes) who starred in the Ike and Tina Turner Revue, are currently starring at Wayne Manor in Sunnyvale. The slogan for the new adult entertainment policy of big-name recording stars "If you're over 21, you'll dig it." Appearing through August 6, the lovely gals, Roberta, Vanetta, and Jessie, have been a sensation all over the globe. As The Ikettes, they recorded hits like "Peaches and Cream" and "I'm So Thankful."

FRED MARTINELLI treated his complete South City Oliver's staff and their families to a "company" outing last Sunday. With Fred being the gracious host, the whole crew headed south for Felton and a July picnic. Steaks, hot dogs, and the usual dishes suitable for outdoor enjoyment, made up the menu. Who did the chefing? Fred, natch. Business was back to normal for Oliver's by lunch time Monday . . . Tonight is the night for one of the biggest cocktail parties of the year at the International Inn. The Pacific Coast Quarter Horse Assoc. (over 300 strong) will hold another of their gala gatherings in the "Inn's" outstanding facilities . . . Located across from Sear's in the Hillsdale Shopping Complex, The Happening, with Rich Roland at the controls, has become a luncheon center for the working crowd as well as Hillsdale shoppers. Look for the wild, new "Happening" sign, which is now a part of the "restaurant beat" Skyline.

DAVE RASMUSSEN
The Shadows

Shadows Enjoys Nationwide Acceptance

Those interested in history, pause, reflect will agree that the quaint, darkened interior of the Shadows restaurant of San Mateo is the image of what a first-class eating house would have presented in the late 18th Century. Dave Rasmussen, who has made history with the success of his various enterprises, has worked hard through the years to attain the nationwide acceptance the Shadows enjoys.

Scotty Campbell's "Blackie" McManus

Pretty hard to top Scotty Campbell's bar master, "Blackie" McManus. Couldn't help but overhear his comment to a lady who was raving on and on about her boyfriend: "Ma'am," said 'Blackie,' "he might be the best, but never trust a man who carries a bundle by a string." For that remark, Blackie, you deserve a new Kilt.

Dewey Wong Chef-Attorney

Few people realize that Dewey Wong, the popular chef-owner of Pierre's in downtown San Mateo, was once a practicing attorney. Dewey completed his education at the age of 16, then spent a year practicing law in his native Hong Kong. Drop in Pierre's soon for lunch or dinner and you'll see how fortunate you are that he decided to be an authority on the culinary arts instead of an attorney with authority.

Keenan Wynn Laughs It Up At Finocchio's

The late Ed Wynn was a frequent visitor and applauder at Finocchio's, and now it looks like his actor son, Keenan, a great comedian himself, is going to carry on the tradition. Keenan was laughing it up heartily at the antics of Lucian, Jackie Phillips and Francis Blair, the "Old bag from Oakland."

Villa Hotel "Rescues" "Off Course" Tourists

The Villa Hotel Coffee House "Summer Parade of Features" is so successful, you had best be early. It is rumored "quite substantially" that even a bus load (a sort of summer tour group) made a dinner stop at the Coffee House, the other evening around 9 p.m., and only just in the "nick of time," as it were. Doubtless though, had it been any night but Sunday or Monday, this "elite" summer group would have selected the taste-defying Upper Level "Just for Steaks," the new Villa Hotel steak restaurant. For these summer tourists were not entirely ordinary but really "off course" from another major hotel in San Francisco only slightly misplaced, but rescued by the valiant and hospitable Villa Hotel.

Giants Are Home Again Roabees Expects "Run"

The Giants are home this weekend, so another "run" is expected at the Drive-thru Window of Roabees, the bustling restaurant specializing in Roast Beef Sandwiches. More and more Roabees are finding their way to Candlestick Park. instead of rushing for a hotdog during the 7th inning stretch, ball park viewers munch contentedly on one of Roabees' three-inch barbecued sandwiches. hot or cold, they're delicious-

For evening party givers these summer eves: The Lanai Liquor store has shelves and shelves of brands and brands of liquor and the "mixings" for the "fixings." A phone call to 345-0605 will have your order special delivered. Open 10 a.m. to 12 midnight.

Workmen are rapidly completing a new air-conditioning system at the Blue Peacock in Millbrae. Patrons, who have long realized how really plush this restaurant and lounge is, will now find added comfort in its coolness.

Diners at Adrian Stickney's San Mateo Fifth Avenue Center restaurant can order a skewered house specialty of steak and lobster Kebob, in addition to the wonderful barbecued spareribs. For a good "Western-style" barbecued summer dinner, dine at Stickney's of San Mateo, Redwood City, Palo Alto or Santa Clara.

There is no doubt who the slick, white "Caddie" belonged to that was parked in front of Vince's Italian restaurant, the other p.m. Inscribed on the car door in gold letters was "Bimbo's 365 Theater Restaurant. A long-time friend of the prominent San Mateo restaurateur, "Bimbo" dines at Vince's at least twice a month.

NORRIS PALMER
V.I.P. Lounge

V.I.P. Lounge Means Just That

Considered V.I.P's in their own right on the Peninsula, Norris Palmer and his partners, Al Wagner and Bernard Abrams, couldn't be more qualified for ownership of the elegant V.I.P. Lounge located in Mills Square. The recent opening of their new lounge drew so many notables, it appeared to be a strategy meeting for a political campaign. Who knows—perhaps it was.

The imposing new A. Sabella's on colorful Fisherman's Wharf is often compared to the plush "palaces" found in Las Vegas. The three-storied dining and dancing mecca, owned and operated by Lucien Sabella, is a must on every tourist's list.

Impressive words during a dining visit at the Villa Chartier: "Hope I make your evening pleasant," was the greeting from the attentive waitress after taking my dinner order.

"Surf and Turf" An Enticement At Augie's

Since giving their downtown San Mateo Augie's restaurant a "new look," Augie and Phyllis Aprile have enjoyed more success than ever. Besides a complete remodeling of the interior, new menu attractions are being added. The latest dinner enticement is the "Surf and Turf" dinner. Tip to luncheon goers: Augie's double Martini for just 75 cents.

A new group, already quite popular with dance fans on the Peninsula, is now appearing at Rocky's, the hard "rockin'" lounge in Redwood City. Ray Neveraz and The Dots, featuring Mike Quirk, will be making their sounds on Friday and Saturday nights, and during the Sunday afternoon jam sessions. Plenty of dance action at Rocky's every weekend.

Long accepted as one of San Francisco's most recommended dining spots, Oreste's at Golden Gate Avenue and Jones caters to an expansive clientele, who enjoy the varied selection of traditional Italian dishes. Owner Joe Piccinini also stocks approximately 200 different wines including the finest champagnes.

THE LARGEST AND FINEST GIFT SELECTION IN THE BAY AREA

'67 Fiesta Full of New Ideas

New innovations introduced in this year's floral show at the Fiesta will give fairgoers a fresh look at one of the West's outstanding floral exhibitions. As we write this, both the inside and outside gardens are nearing completion. This is several days ahead of former years when designers had to race to meet the judging deadline. The early start permitted designers to give more attention to detail and it will give the gardens a more settled look.

Under the direction of talented landscape designer, Allan Hammer, the Hall of Flowers show will feature an unusual "Gazebo," located just east of the center of the Hall at an eight-foot-high elevation. The raised platform will allow visitors to observe the elaborate floral exhibits from a new perspective not possible at ground-level as in prior shows.

The covered Gazebo, fashioned of native redwood, may be reached by two gradually sloping ramps, with a smaller platform located midway at a four-foot elevation, to create a second vantage point and make the climb easy for both old and young.

Free-standing water sculpture will decorate either side of the two Gazebo walkways, forming graceful archways of water. Hammer's design includes ornamental trees to enhance the central area. The Fiesta's always impressive display of cut chrysanthemums will surround the structure for added color.

Impressive View

"From the Gazebo platform, visitors will have an impressive view of the professional gardens, creating further opportunities to study the many ground forms and floral designs contained in each exhibit," Hammer said.

Also highlighting the Floral Fiesta design will be two twelve by forty-foot fountains at the West End of the Hall of Flowers, "framing" the Gazebo in a dramatic entranceway of colored water-in-motion.

For the first time the cut flower show will be centralized in a separate area at the east end of the Hall for the convenience of visitors. Ample bench facilities placed throughout the area will allow fairgoers to relax and enjoy the colorful displays in comfot.

Hammer, a resident of Belmont, is assistant superintendent of parks for the city of San Mateo. However, he is better known to Fista visitors for the outstanding exhibits he has entered in the outdoor section over the past several years. Last year, he an Sadao Sugimoto, curator of the Japanese Garden in Central Park, San Mateo, created the prize-winning, indoor Japanese garden at the Fiesta.

Work on the outdoor garden exhibits started early this year also. As of last Monday we found members of the San Mateo Park Dept. through with their construction work and busy "planting" trees under the direction of Henry Gray. The size of the Aucaria excelsia at the top of their exhibit is proof that people with only a paved patio can enjoy big trees as all trees are in containers. The Redwood City Park Dept. were hard at work placing huge rocks for a waterfall in the "Taxpayers Delight" class.

Ken Sugimoto, noted for his outstanding oriental garden exhibits in past Fiestas, was putting finishing touches on another beautiful entry. This year he will have a Japanese Teahouse plus a covered sitting area that is western in feeling in addition to a beautiful pool and very lovely trained trees. The Juniper procumbens at the head of the waterfall is especially beautiful. Ken has some competition this year as Kimio Kimura had his covered sitting has entered the same classes. Kimura hd his coevred sitting area up and some lovely cedars ready to "plant" beside his pool. The San Mateo Gardeners have the spot next Ken Sugimoto and while only the construction was evident a dozen or so of these professional gardeners can practically build an exhibit in a night or two.

We were particularly impressed with the beautiful ivy-archgateway to the Naka Nursery (Fremont) exhibit being built by Shig. Nakamura. The East Bay Nursery was building a rose garden with a waterfall and a pool which we will be anxious to see finshed. The Woodside Gardeners were also featuring a pool with a cement arched bridge and some good-looking pines. The Bancroft Way Nusery was building a Japanese Garden featuring roses and night lighting..

Educational

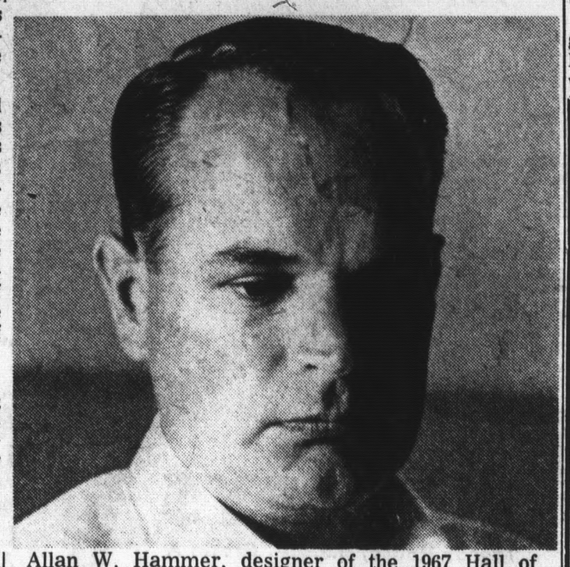
The amateurs were in there pitching, too. Outdoor garden exhibits underway last Monday were entered by the San Mateo County Rose Society, Peninsula Rose Society, Rake, Hoe & Spade Garden Club; San Mateo Jr. Woman's Club, Civic Garden Club of San Carlos, Pacific Flower Friends, Ladera Garden Club, Garden Club of Menlo Park, Daly City Garden Club, Carolands Garden Club and the Garden Study Club of the Peninsula.

All the outdoor gardens are a little larger this year. Most of them will be as large as a majority of city backyards, so bring your cameras to the Fiesta as you may find just what you would like for your own garden. The amateur gardens are truly do-it-yourself affairs as Fiesta rules prohibit professional help in constructing the exhibits.

Indoors, the amateurs will have potted plants, cut flowers and flower arrangements. This division of the Fiesta attracts over 3,500 amateur flower exhibits each year. For new home owners this whole section of the Fiesta flower show could be "educational," in that it provides one of the finest display of plant materials that can be grown in the home gardens of San Mateo County.

Due to the increased time, thirteen days against the eight of former years, there will be an increased number of entry periods. The opening date of July 31 will see entries in every division. Then, August 3 will bring a whole set of new entries in both the cut flower division and the flower arrangement division. August 6 will be second entry time for table settings and potted plants while flower arrangements and cut flowers will come in for a third judging. These last two divisions will also have a fourth judging period on August 9. This means that to see all the Fiesta at least four visits must be made.

Home and Garden



Allan W. Hammer, designer of the 1967 Hall of Flowers Show at the San Mateo County Fair Floral Fiesta, reviews plans for the unusual raised "Gazebo" platform which affords fairgoers a new vantage point from which to enjoy the lavish professional and amateur exhibits, n o w through August 12. Hammer is assistant superintendent of parks for the city of San Mateo.

Design Contest

A nationwide Spring Garden Design Contest, with a Grand Prize of $500, has been announced by the National Spring Garden Planting Week Committee.

The contest is open to any organized group such as Kiwanis, Rotary, Boy and Girl Scouts, veterans' organizations, garden, men's and women's clubs, etc. Each participating group is to select a public area in its community for beautification — a "vest-pocket" garden, highway picnic area, part of a park, or other such locations. They are to design and plant the garden this Fall for flowing next Spring.

Boys Saved From Cliff

Three boys were retrieved from a rock in the second rescue operation in two days at the Daly City beach Friday.

Firemen threw lifejackets and a rope to the three after the tide trapped them on a rock just south of Mussel Rock. They scaled the cliff with the aid of a rescue cable after reaching the beach.

The three, Tom Marks, 15, Manny Burkman, 17, and Robert Squires, 11, were fishing from the rock, firemen said, and failed to notice the rising tide.

Two teen-age boys were rescued near the spot Thursday after they were trapped on the beach by the incoming tide.

Brownies and Hot Coffee

Potatoes, the world's most popular tuber vegetable, originated in the high plateaus of South America. The Spanish explorers introduced them to Europe, and they were brought to America by the early settlers. This versatile, nutritious vegetable is served in many ways and a new "outdoor" way is Zesty Grilled Potatoes! Cooked potatoes marinated in spicy salad dressing are grilled to crisp, golden-brown perfection over charcoal. They are a natural "mate" on the grill with everyone's favorite—grilled steak!

Grilled Steak originated on the western plains of North America and has since spread to many millions of backyard barbecues. You will find complete instructions on the popular art of barbecuing steak plus recipes for many other barbecue favorites, foods for cooking-afloat, ideas for camp cookery and even hunters' specialties are included in Betty Crocker's New Outdoor Cookbook!

Sizzling From the Grill

Charcoal-grilled Steak.

Choose 1-, 1½- or 2-inch-thick steak for best results. For each person, allow 1 pound of any steak with a bone, such as sirloin, porterhouse, club or T-bone; allow ½ pound of boneless cuts, such as tenderloin. For a small group, select individual steaks if your grill can accommodate all at once; if not order one large, very thick steak so everyone can start eating at the same time.

Trim excess fat from edge of steak; slash remaining fat at 2inch intervals to prevent curling. Grill steak 4 inches from hot coals suggested time (see chart below). Handle steak with tongs (a fork releases juices). Season with salt and pepper turning and after removing from grill. Test doneness by making a knife slit alongside bone. Serve steak piping hot topped with Blue Cheese Topping (below) or spread with Sesame Butter (below).

Grilling Time for Each Side

RARE—1 inch thick, 4 to 5 minutes; 1½ inches thick, 7 to 8 minutes; 2 inches thick, 12 to 13 minutes.

MEDIUM—1 inch thick, 7 to 8 minutes; 1½ inches thick, 10 to 12 minutes; 2 inches thick, 15 to 17 minutes.

WELL DONE—1 inch thick, 10 to 11 minutes; 1½ inches thick, 14 to 15 minutes; 2 inches thick, 22 to 25 minutes.

Blue Cheese Topping:

Mix about 1 ounce blue cheese with about ¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce or bottled steak sauce.

Seasame Butter:

Beat ¼ cup soft butter, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce and ½ teaspoon garlic salt until fluffy. Stir in 1 tablespoon toasted sesame seed.

Zesty Grilled Potatoes:

4 medium unpared potatoes
½ cup bottled Italian dressing
1 teaspoon salt

Scrub potatoes; cook in skins just until tender, about 30 minutes. While hot, cut unpeeled potatoes diagonally into ½-inch slices. Place in shallow glass dish; pour dressing over hot slices. Let stand 1 hour, turning slices once. Remove potatoes from dressing; place potatoes Grill 8 to 10 minutes on each side until golden brown; season with salt and pepper after turn- on grill 3 inches from hot coals. ing. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

An Old-Fashioned Summer Cooler

Your guests will like the delightful flavor combination. So will you. Serve Summer Abrosia soon.

GREAT GRAVY! IT'S SUPPER ON A STICK — Supper on a Stick, a great new idea for bar-b-cues. Our stick supper is spiedine — a combination of ham, cheese, eggs, chopped beef, gravy seasoning and browning sauce.

Supper on Stick For the Barbecue

Supper on a stick. Why not. Try this beef wrap around for one of thes best bar-b-cues ever. Called Spiedine by the Italians who invented it, our version calls for ham, cheese, chopped beef, eggs, oregano, gravy seasoning and browning sauce. Everything is combined in a one step operaton, wrapped around a skewer or stick, basted often and then grilled to a turn over glowing coals.

The Speidine is filling so add only a light salad or marinated mushrooms and carrot sticks. Give each person an extra bowl of sauce and don't foret to pass the cheese!

Skewered Beef Rools
(Spiedine)

1 cup grated sharp cheese
2 slices boiled ham, minced
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese
1½ pounds chopped beef
2 eggs
2 teaspoons Gravy Master (gravy seasoning and browning sauce)
¼ Teaspoon oregano
Evaporated milk
Fine dry seasoned bread crumbs

Thoroughly mix all ingredients except last two. Shape mixture into fat rolls around 6-8 skewers. Brush rolls with milk and roll in crumbs; chill. To serve, grill or broil rolls, brushing with sauce during cooking. Cook about 15 minutes, browning on all sides. Serve with hot sauce and extra cheese. Makes 6 to 8 rolls depending on size skewer used.

SAUCE FOR SPIEDINE

Mix 1 cup tomato sauce or catsup, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 tablespoon Gravy Master (Gravy seasoning and browning sauce) and dash cayenne. Heat and use as baste-sauce.

Chilled Fruit Balls For Children

Children at home? Cereal Fruit Balls are needed. Because the no-bake sweets make up moist and soft, they are grand snacks to have on hand during humid weather. They keep well in a tightly covered container in a cool place. As mothers know, cereals and fruit are good for children. Oven-toasted rice cereal is the crunchy ingredient used in this recipe. It and other breakfast cereals are economical sources of food energy, protein, minerals, and the B vitamins.

Cereal Fruit Balls

1 cup quartered dried apricots
½ cup water
½ cup thick applesauce
1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
½ cup nonfat dry milk solids
½ cup finely chopped walnuts
1½ teaspoons grated lemon rind
⅛ teaspoon salt
3 cups oven-toasted rice cereal, crushed to make 1½ cups
Granulated sugar

Cook apricots in small amount of water until tender and water evaporates. Cool, mash and add remaining ingredients, except granulated sugar; mix well. Shape into balls, using a tablespoonful of mixture for each ball. Roll in granulated sugar. Chill. Roll in additional granulated sugar just before serving. Yield: 3 dozen balls.

Chicken-Apple Salad for Summer

The French gastronome, Brillat-Savarin, praised a salad as that which "freshens without enfeebling and fortifies without irritating." The language is a bit archaic, but most good cooks today agree that salads are the ideal combination of refreshment and nourishment in hot weather.

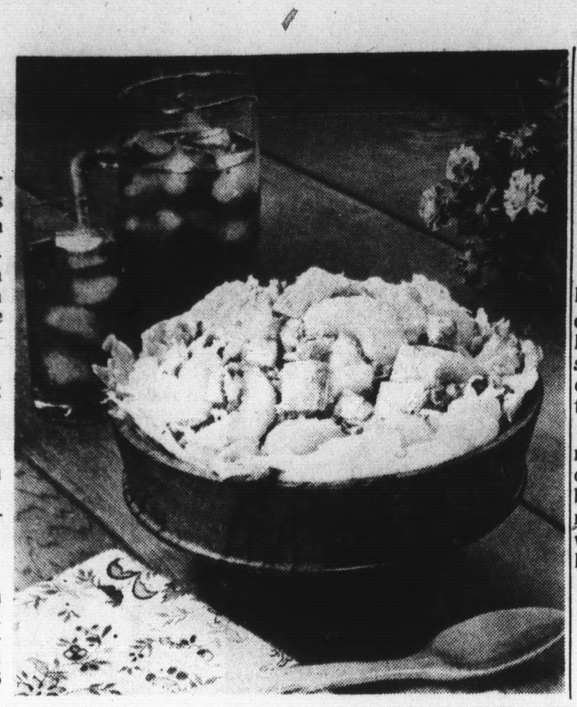
With summer at the midpoint, families appreciate something a little different to revive heat-wilted appetites, and today's chicken apple salad fills that bill of fare perfectly. The difference in this salad is the addition of a can of those versatile canned Comstock pie-sliced apples which you may have used only for pies up till now. Marinated in French dressing, they make a cool, succulent and refreshing blend with diced chicken, and because their special processing retains fresh-fruit color and texture without the addition of lemon juice, this salad keeps its inviting appearance until the very last serving.

Chopped walnuts and celery add an interesting crunchy contrast to the chicken apple mixture in this salad which needs only biscuits, desserts, and a beverage to complete the meal. Brillat-Savarin might not risk a pun, but we'd call this salad a summer mixed blessing! Here is the recipe.

CHICKEN APPLE SALAD

1 lb. 4 oz. can Comstock Pie-Sliced Apples, well drained
½ cup French dressing
3 cups cubed, cooked chicken
1½ cups diced celery
½ cup coarsely chopped walnuts
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper

Marinate apple slices in French dressing for about 1 hour. Add remaining ingredients and toss lightly. Serve on crisp lettuce leaves. Makes 6 servings.



Quick, Easy Skillet Dish

Here is a quick and easy recipe for the day you don't know what to serve.

Roslyn's Skillet Hamburger
Green Salad Bread Tray
Chocolate Cake
Iced Beverage

ROSLYN'S SKILLET HAMBURGER

2 tablespoons butter
1 medium onion, diced
1 clove garlic, minced
1 pound ground chuck beef
1 cup marinara sauce (from a jar or can)
1 package (8 ounces) broad noodles
½ cup commercial sour cream
Salt and pepper to taste

In a lareg skillet, melt the butter. Add the onion and garlic; cook slowly until golden; add beef; crumble with a fork until the meat loses its redness. Stir in marinara sauce. Prepare the noodles according to package directions; drain and add to meat mixture. Just before serving, stir in the sour cream, salt and pepper; heat but do not boil. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

Citrus Will Give Tang and Sparkle

Citrus fruits give a light sparkle and tang to foods which are especially appropriate during hot weather eating. Both orange slices and juice used with lamb chops provide this kind of a treat.

Lamb chops selected for this recipe may be either the blade or round bone variety. The blade bone is long and slender, resembling the figure seven while the round bone chops have an "o" shape.

Lamb Chops with Orange Slices

6 lamb shoulder chops cut ¾-inch thick
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
Salt
Pepper
½ cup orange juice
6 orange slices
1 tablespoon flour
½ cup water
1 tablespoon chopped parsley

Brown lamb chops in melted lard or drippinsg in frying pan. Pour off drippings. Season. Pour orange juice over chops.

Place orange slice on top of each chop. Cover tightly and cook slowly 45 minutes or until done. Remove chops from frying pan. To make gravy, blend flour with ½ cup water to make smooth paste. Add to meat liquid in frying pan. Cook until thickened for gravy. Six servings.

Pancakes Have A Savory History

Here's a delightful dish with a tale to tell. Back in 1445 in Olney, fifty miles from London, a remarkable competition was begun which reportedly continues to this day. Housewives of the area engage in a pancake foot race. Contestants report to the village square, skillet in hand. Then they race to the church, a 415-yard dash, flipping pancakes as they run!

Londontown Pancakes made with convenient Carnation tuna provide the needed protein for a main dish meal. Blended into a luscious Newburg sauce tuna makes a delectably unusual filling between 4 large pancakes. This is elegant enough dish for a hot buffet service yet simple enough for the busiest cook. Canned tuna's thrifty food, too, so you're saving as well as enjoying a good meal.

LONDONTOWN PANCAKES

2 cans Carnation Chunk Light tuna in vegetable oil
4 large pancakes
1 can (3 or 4-ounces) sliced mushrooms
Milk

Sliced Turkey Cranberry Sauce
Vegetable Casserole
Salad Bread Sticks
Orange Sherbet with Sliced Strawberries

Try Sherbet With Fruit

This orange sherbet is delicious served alone or with fruit.

ORANGE SHERBET

1 envelope unflavored gelatin
½ cup sugar
⅛ teaspoon salt
2¼ cups water
1 can (6 ounces) frozen orange juice, concentrate, thawed
1 egg white, stiffly beaten

Into a medium size skillet or metal bowl turn the gelatin, sugar and salt. Add the water and place over moderate heat, stirring constantly with a rubber spatula until gelatin is dissolved — 3 to 5 minutes. Remove from heat and add orange juice; stir well. Turn into freezing tray of refrigerator; set in ice-cube compartment. When partially frozen, remove from tray, turn into chilled bowl and beat with electric beater until fluffy and smooth but not melted. Fold in stiffly beaten egg white. Return to tray and freeze 30 minutes longer; stir; freeze until firm.

Meat Loaf Is Versatile

"If I have a meat loaf made on Saturday mornings in summer, I'm ready for whatever the family plans," says an experienced homemaker.

Meat loaf can be served hot with potatoes and vegetables. It can be carried in its loaf pan to picnic, porch or backyard, wherever Dad and the youngsters decide they want their Saturday dinner, with potato salad and raw vegetable relishes. Chilled, it slices easily to go on a cold meat platter with macaroni salad or into sandwiches at home or picnic.

Old-Fashioned Meat Loaf uses both ground beef and pork, with time-tested seasonings. Use thorough mixing but light handling so the meats which are made tender by grinding do not produce a too-firm texture from excessive handling.

Old-Fashioned Meat Loaf

1 pound ground beef
1 pound ground pork
2 cups soft bread crumbs
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
2 teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon sage
2 eggs
1 cup milk
1 tablespoon Worcesterhire sauce

Combine all ingredients and mix thoroughly. Pack into a 9x5-inch loaf pan. Bake in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) 1½ hours. 6 to 8 servings.

4 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
1 pimiento, diced
2 tablespoons sherry, optional

Cook pancakes using ½ cup batter for each pancake. Keep warm. Drain mushrooms; add enough milk to mushroom liquid to make 2 cups. Reserve. Drain 2 tablespoons of the oil from tuna into a saucepan; heat. Blend in flour and salt. Add reserved milk mixture and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Add small amount hot mixture to egg yolks, stirring constantly. Return to saucepan and cook, stirring constantly until thickened slightly. Add mushrooms, tuna, pimiento and sherry; heat to serving temperature. Layer between pancakes; cut into wedges. Yield: 6 servings.

CSM Charter Bus Service Schedules For Fall Term

Reservations are being taken this week for fall semester charter bus service from the North Peninsula area to the College of San Mateo, a spokesman for Associated Students said this week.

The bus service is sponsored by the Associated Students organization, the college district and passengers who utilize the buses. Airport Charter Lines is the carrier.

More than 200 North Peninsula students utilized the charter service last year, and a greater number is expected to register for the coming term, officials said.

The service was inaugurated two years ago.

This fall the Junipero Serra bus will leave Canal Street in South San Francisco each week day at 6:30 a.m. It will proceed west on Spruce Avenue, South on El Camino Real, west on Sneath Lane to Junipero Serra north on Junipero Serra to Alemany Boulevard, and through Westlake to Skyline Boulevard.

The bus will arrive at the College of San Mateo campus at 8 a.m.

On the return trip, the Junipero Serra bus will depart at 3:10 p.m., and follow the same route as the morning run.

The regular bus will also depart from Canal Street each morning, but will travel east on Spruce, north on Grand Avenue to Old Mission Road to Knolls Avenue.

It will then travel west on Alemany to Dorchester, Maddux and 87th Street.

The regular bus will depart from Canal Street at 6:30 a.m., 7:30 a.m., 8:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m., and will leave the campus for the return trip at 1:10 p.m., 2:10 p.m., 3:10 p.m., 4:10 p.m. and 5:10 p.m.

The bus passes can be purchased from Dean Walsh's office during registration at $7 per month. The $7 passes are good for 20 school days.

S.F. May Still Dump Garbage in Brisbane

Despite the victories they have won in their war against the garbage dumpers, the citizens of Brisbane have yet to win the wa. itself.

The District Court of Appeal in San Francisco last week ruled that the Sanitary Fill Company, which handles all of San Francisco's garbage, can continue to use the Sierra Point dump in the bay indefinitely.

The firm dumps 1,500 tons of garbage there every day.

The appellate court granted the stay pending consideration of writs applied for by the scavengers. There was no indication when the decisions will be made.

Brisbane citizens first passed an initiative ordinance baning all garbage dumps in their city. Then they successfully fought against the scavenger company in court.

Superior Judge C. Harold Underwood of Trinity County issued an injunction last month prohibiting further use of the Sierra Point site. The injunction was to have been effective Sunday and, if the district court had not issued the stay, the no-dumping edict would have been enforced starting Monday morning.

New Law to Increase Pay Of Credentialed Teacher

Legislation to increase the minimum salary for fully credentialed teachers in California to $6,000 a year has passed he Senate.

Senator Richard J. Dolwig (R-San Mateo County), author of the bill, said the increase would become effective July 1, 1968.

Dolwig told the Senate the present minimum salary for regularly credentialed teachers was established in 1964.

"The increase is justified by current salary data," Dolwig aid.

"Under the $6,000 minimum, a single male teacher would receive a net takehome pay of approximately $390 per month after the customary deductions for income tax, retirement and health insurance," he explained.

"A married teacher with two children would receive approximately $412 net take-home pay per month after those deductions."

Dolwig said surveys on salaries paid to college graduates with bachelor degrees reveal considerably higher beginning salaries in other occupations such as accounting, business administration, engineering, marketing, and others.

He said under present economic situations, it is "reasonable and just" for a college trained person to expect an annual salary of $6,000.

"A decent standard of living is not possible with less."

Dolwig noted that if beginning salaries for teachers are not adequate, there is no inducement for college graduates to enter the teaching profession in preference to accepting higher paying positions in private industry.

N. County Teeners Hurt on Cycles

Two north county teen-agers suffered serious injuries Wednesday when their motorcycle crashed into a car on Skyline Boulevard a mile west of Ralston Avenue.

Witnesses said the youngsters were thrown over the car.

Highway Patrolman Donald F. Woods said the accident happened at 2:15 p.m. and involved the motorcycle driven by Anthony F. Mezzanotti, 17, of 180 Shell Street, Pacifica, and a sedan driven by Jared O. Crowley, 28, of Sunnyvale, a programmer at the Stanford Linear Accelerator Center.

Crowley said he was rounding a sharp downhill curve when he saw two motocycles coming from the opposite direction. One was in the center of the roadway and appeared to be coming into his lane. Crowley said he first thought to steer to the left and go between the motorcycles, but then decided to swerve to the right. The motocycle appeared to swerve in that direction at the same time, witnesses reported.

Young Mezzanotti, a student at Oceana High School, suffered a fractured skull and fractures of the right leg and ankle, among other injuries. He was in the intensive care unit of Sequoia Hospital today and listed in fair condition.

His passenger, Kathline Gutierrez, 14, of 290 Lassen Drive, San Bruno, sustained a shattered right kneecap and other injuries. She was transferred to Kaiser Hospital in Sunnyvale after receiving emergency treatment at Sequoia.

Also treated for minor injuries at Sequoia was Mrs. Emma Wade, 61, of Ogden, Utah, a passenger in Crowley's car.

Reagan OKs Ryan's Bill For Teachers

"The experience of retired teachers and school personnel will not longer be wasted," Assemblyman Leo J. Ryan (D-SSF) said when Governor Ronald Reagan signed his bill AB 868 into law.

"Taxpayers will save some money . . . at the same time, much wisdom and available talent will not be wasted," said Assemblyman Ryan, a former-high school teacher. "There is not sense nor reason to say when a prson reaches 65 . . . that he no longer is useful in education."

AB 868 allows retired professors to be employed on the teaching or academic staff of state colleges and the University of California, without loss of retirement benefits, as long as such service does not exceed ninety days. It also allows retired teachers to be employed on a restricted basis by public school districts. Both provisions at no cost to the State.

Assemblyman Ryan's bill passed both legislative houses unanimously before it was sent to the Governor's desk.

Seaman Held After Auto Injures Two

A merchant seaman was arrested by Pacifica police Saturday on a felony drunk driving charge after his car struck three vehicles on Manor Drive, injuring two persons.

Police said Sidney Thomas Hogan, 31, 29 Pinehave Drive, Daly City, was westbound on Manor when he sideswiped a car driven by John Charles Falians, 41, 125 Buckingham, San Francisco.

Two passengers in the Faliane car were hurt. They were Alice Elizabeth Lee, 70, who was admitted to Mary's Help hospital for treatment of a possible back sprain and for lacerations, and Catherine Dorcas Faliano, 9, who received cuts and bruises.

According to police, the Hogan car, after striking the Faliano auto, bounced off to the right about 56 feet and smashed into a parked car, then glanced off that vehicle and struck another parked car on the opposite side of the street.

Low Dropout Rate Shown For S.S.F.

The student dropout rate at South San Francisco's public high schools is among the lowest in the nation, a survey firm disclosed.

In a report to the South San Francisco Unified School District Board of Trustees, a Melbo Associates survey team said the dropout rate is 3.8 per cent at South San Francisco High School and only 2 per cent at El Camino High School.

"This is remarkable at a time when 30 per cent of the high school students in the United States drop out before graduation," a spokesman for the survey team said.

Among the facts contributing to the district's exceptional "holding ability" are higher than average family incomes, fewer working mothers, and a relatively high educational level of persons over 25.

The survey team estimated that 50 per cent of the South San Francisco high school graduates will go to college, and 50 per cent of the college students will earn advanced degrees.

A "dark spot" in the survey report was an increase in number of students expelled from the two high schools. Eight students were excluded from the schools during the 1966-67 term, compared to three during the 1965-66 school year.

Seven of the eight students excluded this year were expelled because of narcotics violations.

Auto Hits Embankment

A San Francisco man was injured Saturday night when his automobile struck an embankment and overturned on Junipero Serra Boulevard in South San Francisco.

Police said Robert Burkart, 25, lost control of his car and it ran off the road about 9 p.m. The car flipped back onto the road, officers said, and overturned several times before coming to rest on the pavement.

Burkart was thrown out of the vehicle.

He is listed in satisfactory condition at Mary's Help Hospital, where he is undergoing treatment for head and shoulder injuries.

'Rube Goldberg' Booth

More than 60 volunteers, including those from Daly City will help San Mateo County Branch, American Cancer Society, carry the ACS crusade against cancer quackery to San Mateo Fair-goers.

The 1967 ACS booth at the fair will take on a Rube Goldberg aspect, spotlighting a number of the wierd mechanical contrivances that have been confiscated as "quack" cancer cure-alls.

The display goes to show that "quackery only delays vital treatment and holds out false promises," according to Mrs. Seymour Kolko of San Mateo, chairman of education for the ACS branch.

Mrs. Kolko has recruited members of the County Medical Society Auxiliary, Redwood City Jaycettes, Daly City and San Carlos ACS Units and other volunteer groups to staff the booth during the fiesta.

Guild Sale And Fashion Show in Fall

Rags to riches is the program for members of the Riordan Guild this summer as they plan two major events in the fall as soon as school opens.

September, the Guild will hold its second annual RUMMAGE SALE in the school gym. Mrs. Vern Box is chairman of the event and anyone wishing to donate items, such as linens, furniture, millinery, books, clothing, bric-a-brac, toys, shoes, or jewelry should contact her for further information or pick up appointments.

"It is surprising what one person would donate another would be just as glad to buy. Since there is not much time left before the sale, cooperation will be greatly appreciated," Mrs. Box said.

The Fashion Show Committee will be ready for their fashion show and luncheon, "Fashions For All Seasons," to be held October 21 at 12 noon in Chaminade Hall. Mrs. Victor Dowdle will be Chairman and Mrs. Mario Pantera co-chairman. H. Liebes of Westlake will present the fashions.
